File Appeal From State Board Edict

The City of Newton in conjunction with the City of Cambridge and Towns of Dedham and Sauquoit, has filed in the State Supreme Court, an appeal from the edict of the State Department of Public Health requiring that they join the Metropolitan Water System.

The City of Newton now pays about $25,000 annually for the privilege of drawing water from the Metropolitan system and if they were to join the Metropolitan Water system as required by this edict the estimated cost would be about $5,000 more.

Should Do House Repairs Now

The inspiring news of advances on established fighting fronts and the taking of new bases of attack must be considered practical by the people at home, in relation to the necessity of rebuilding our industrial war efforts, Northeastern Homes Foundation points out. A full flow of supplies, at the top level of the needs of our men in the fighting forces, has to be maintained at all costs and the supply base is the foundation of the attack base itself.

"This is why cargoes of lumber trail the troops," says Paul S. Collier, Foundation Director. "Deck installations, warehouses, barracks, hospitals, hangars, and other base structures all require immense quantities of lumber, most of it pre-cut for rapid erection by the Army's Engineers or the Navy's 'Seabees' construction regiments. At every stage of advance by our forces similar construction is repeated."

"The home owner whose house wants repairs, and who may have been putting off doing the job, should lose no more time. Winter is here. The local lumber dealer may yet have lumber available. He might not have it at the time when home repairs become a matter of sudden emergency."

Resigns After Years of Service

John Temperley of 85 Thurston rd., Newton Upper Falls, who served as a member of the Newton Board of Aldermen for 16 years, retired from the board on January 1.

Mr. Temperley, who is 72 years of age, attended nearly every meeting since he became a member of the board except for the time several years ago when he suffered a broken leg. He had won the title of "Honest John" because he at all times fought against any matter that came up which he felt had any tinge of irregularity. He was several times opposed for re-election but served on the board the longest of years of any members.

Born in Worsley, England, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Temperley, he came here with his parents when he was 3 years old. For the past 46 years he has been proprietor of a printing shop, 75 Union st., Newton Centre, and is publisher of The Community Courant.

Mr. and Mrs. Temperley have five children. Their son, John K. Temperley, is an aviator and First Class U. S. Navy, stationed at Hawaii. Their four daughters are Mrs. Paul A. Tells About 1944 Banking Outlook

Much Money Available For Loans But No Decrease In Services Charges

At the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club held at the Ernie Burn Country Club on Monday, Frank L. Richardson, executive president of the Newton Trust Company, spoke on "The Banking Outlook for 1944." The banks he stated have never been stronger than they are at present and have an unlimited amount of money for any justifiable purposes. The low interest rates he said will continue and there will be no decrease in service charges. He advocated government control of prices.

Charles A. Breed speaking on "The Fuel Supply" stated that the coal shortage is serious due to difficulties at the mines, the transportation problem having been overcome. He also urged caution in the use of oil as the present supply of coupons must last through the season except for small additional amounts.

Fred Bond speaking on "Dry Goods" stated there will be a gradual easing of scarcities during 1944. He said that the year 1943 had been the best year in the history of his business and the year 1944 is also expected to be a good year.

Frank Frykstrand, treasurer of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway, said that the year 1943 had been the biggest in the history of the company.

Lincoln Alvora speaking on "Real Estate" said that 10 years ago there was a surplus of residential property in Newton but that since a year ago there has been hardly any property either for sale or for rent. Prices he said will continue to rise.

Howard Selby predicted that there will be a 20 per cent shortage of milk in 1944 due to an 8 per cent increase in consumption and a 12 per cent decrease in production. This shortage he said will continue unless the government makes provisions for adequate fodder from the West and sufficient manpower at the dairies.

John H. Kent, who has a record of 20 years of perfect attendance at Rotary meetings, and who recently retired as district manager of the Boston Edison Company, was elected to honorary membership in Rotary. Roger Congdon, who is business manager of the Dealm Machine Tool Company in West Newton, was elected to membership.

Present as guests were Harold Secord of Newton, Herbert Archibald, James O'Connor and Edward Wright of Watertown, Louis Bachrach of Boston, Edward Ames of Gloucester and William Giles.

MAYOR GODDARD STRESSES NEED FOR CONSTRUCTIVE PLANNING IN INAUGURAL

The Inaugural Exercises held on New Year's Day at Newton City Hall opened with a prayer by Rev. Morrison Russell Boynton of the First Congregational Church, Newton Centre.

Mayor Paul M. Goddard was sworn in by Superior Court Judge John V. Spalding of Newton Highlands. After he had taken the oath of office Mayor Goddard administered the oath to the members-elect of the Board of Aldermen.

Alderman Joseph B. Jamieson was unanimously elected president of the Board and Albert P. Everts was elected vice-president. Clarence C. Colby was re-elected city treasurer and collector for one year and Frank M. Grant who has served as City Clerk for 33 years was re-elected for a three year term.

In his inaugural address Mayor Goddard stressed the fact that the rehabilitation of returning service men is one of the prime duties of the community.

The address was as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen—

"This is the third time that I have been privileged to address you on the first day of the year, when we again take the oath of the various offices to which we have been elected. In taking this oath we become servants of the citizens of this community. We can often profit by looking backward as well as forward, and I take the liberty of quoting from my inaugural address of January 1, 1940, for after four years I am more than ever confident of the truth of this statement, I know of no community in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts where unselfish service is more adequately rewarded or more sincerely appreciated than in our own City of Newton. With this I am sure you will all agree. Four years ago I made no specific commitments as to the future, and none will be made now. I did, however, promise to cooperate with department heads to the utmost of my ability, and also stated that these same department heads would have full and complete authority in all matters under their jurisdiction. It was emphasized that the Mayor is dependent upon the help and cooperation of all city officials for the results which you and our citizens have a right to expect and I have always had such help and co-operation to the fullest extent possible."

"I expressed the hope at the beginning of my administration that we would show a sound progress, which might be expected as a result of the contribution of our entire citizenship to the needs of this community. And then two years ago I stated my belief in the fact that our citizens were eager to assume the responsibilities of the present National Emergency. This was not so much prophetic on my part as a statement of confidence in the quality of Newton citizenship, which has again amply proved itself during these last four years. Our standard of municipal administration is the reflection of such citizenship in conjunction with a high degree of public service which we ourselves should constantly strive to attain. Thus, building upon a solid foundation we in Newton have been able to adapt our Government to the needs of the time."

HIGHLIGHTS SELECTED FROM MAYOR GODDARD'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS

"Thousands of Newton citizens are now serving in the armed forces of the country and our gratitude to them knows no bounds," he asserted. "We must keep faith with them for the sacrifices they are making for us and we must continue to do our part on the home front to hasten their return."
The first obligation with which we will be confronted, even before the war is over, will be these returning service men. The responsibility of assisting them to relocate themselves in civilian life rests upon the entire community."
The government, of any other single agency is not equipped of itself to render the aid and assistance necessary. The problem will demand the services, help and cooperation of everyone.

There has already been organized in Newton a Citizens Advisory Committee for Returning Service Men. This is a committee which will undertake to advise the returning soldier, and let him know the various individuals and agencies where assistance will be given him. The Community Council has been instrumental in the organization of this committee, and it is patterned after the state committee as requested by the governor of the Commonwealth.

We have heard much about post war planning with reference to public works. Different departments of the city government already have plans for various projects which can go forward when and if it becomes advisable to spend the money. I have already appointed an informal committee, the members of which have been taken from the public works committee of the Board of Aldermen, to study and advise with the executive department with reference to post war planning with particular regard to public works.

We have a limitless supply of material and spiritual resources, and we can all look forward with confidence to the future."

Community Council, after a careful study by its Research Committee. The functions of this Advisory Committee will consist, chiefly, in coordinating the work of the many organizations in the City and those of the State that are ready to assist members of the armed forces when they return to civil life and need counsel or aid during the period of readjustment

POLITICS WITH COLOR

By P. W. C.

Happy New Year

I wish a very Happy New Year to all my readers. May 1944 bring with it such an overwhelming victory of allied arms that there will be peace, enduring peace for many generations to come.

Locally, may all our City officials and the rank and file of our citizenry work so efficiently and so harmoniously that our returning soldiers, sailors and marines will find their home city the same happy place in which to live.

Robert T. Bushnell

Many men in public life appear to have temporarily abandoned their custom of sending out Christmas cards during the past holiday season. Consequently, it was a real pleasure to receive two cards, in particular, from two known public servants. One was from our Junior Senator, Henry Cabot Lodge, whom I have felt obliged to refer to sometimes in none too complimentary terms. The other was from our tireless Attorney General, Robert T. Bushnell, who favored me with much more than a card. He wrote a letter which I shall all ways prize, but which I do not feel free to quote. My sincere thanks to you, Bob, and may 1944 bring success and happiness to you and your family.

This brings me to the current startling development about the Boston Police situation. Frankly, I am in a bit of a fog. As soon as I have had an opportunity to unravel the mystery, I may comment on it. At the moment I am trying to battle the gripe and do not feel as lively as usual. It is most difficult to figure out what the apparent victory of certain police officials means. Also, it is hard to see into the immediate future. Mr. Timilty is talking long and loudly about the possibility of bringing suit against the Attorney General. Mention is likewise made of possible impeachment proceedings. At the moment, I do not take much stock in either. Knowing Bob Bushnell as I do, it occurs to me that he may have some new trick up his sleeve. Even so, the resignation of three of his trusty aides is disconcerting. Frank Volpe, especially, has been on the job so long and has served so intelligently and so faithfully that one wonders what, if anything, lies back of his retirement. In the meantime, however, let us be thankful that we have in the new Police Commissioner, Mr. Sullivan, a sterling citizen and proven administrator who has been doing a splendid job ever since he took over his new duties.

Our City Government

Mayor Goddard sounded a fine note in his recent inaugural address when he stressed the vital importance of caring for our returning war veterans. As he aptly pointed out, we have plenty to do right now in the way of rehabilitation of those who have already returned to Newton. Too many citizens seem to consider that we have relatively little to worry about until final demobilization takes place. A brief chat with the Mayor's office or with the Soldiers' Relief Commissioner will serve to straighten matters out.

Congratulations to Alderman Joseph B. Jamieson on his election as President of the Board of Aldermen; also, to Alderman Albert P. Everts on his election as Vice President. Two better men could not have been picked. The team of Floyd and Jamieson gives way to the team of Jamieson and Everts. May they both live up to the hopes and expectations of their many friends and admirers. Later on I shall have something to say about the new committee chairmen. The big spot, which is also the hot spot (Finance Committee) goes to my old friend Ted Lockwood. It goes without saying that he will give this work consecrated service.

Charles B. Floyd

Another good friend of your columnist has beaten him to the punch. Reference is made to Rep. George E. Rawson, who wrote a splendid and well-deserved tribute to our retiring President, Charlie Floyd. Now, Charlie is one of those men who grow on you and then keep on growing indefinitely. Time was when Charlie Floyd seemed to be chiefly a highly-useful cog in a great big machine. Of late years, it has become obvious that he was far, far more than that. He has become a grade A leader, not merely in the field of government but in practically every field of community endeavor. He put over the Red Cross drive and then did a bang-up job for the United War Fund. Name almost any civic enterprise of importance and you will find the name of Charles B. Floyd bobbing up. Furthermore, this remarkable man gets his work done with a minimum of friction and apparent effort. It is always a pleasure to work with him and you like him just as much when the job is done as you did before. You cannot say that about everybody.

It is a fitting climax to this week's column to say to you, Charlie, on behalf of thousands of friends and well-wishers—"Good-luck and God bless you." P. W. C.

The president, Miss Alice M. Anderson, extended an invitation to the members to attend the Junior Guest Night of the Newton Community Club on Thursday,

Kiwanis Activities

The newly elected officers of the Newton Kiwanis Club were installed at the regular weekly meeting last Tuesday. The meeting was in the evening and dinner was served at six-thirty. The new officers are as follows: President, George E. VanBuskirk; Immediate Past President, James B. Riggs; First Vice President, Walter Hood; Second Vice President, Benjamin F. Louis; Secretary, Edmund Derocher; Treasurer, Leo Noel.

The installation ceremony was conducted by International Trustee, James P. Gallagher, a member of the local club. Following the installation there were comments by the past and new officers.

Six acts of vaudeville were presented at eight-thirty o'clock under the direction of Eddie Lyons. The six acts included the Three Marino Sisters, who did tap and ballet dancing; Jim Nicatola of Auburndale, singer and dancer; Helen Henry of Belmont, pianist and singer; Virginia Dwyer of Newton Corner, tap dancer; Tommie Tinsone of Waltham, accordion player, and Eddie Lyons, himself, who put on an original comedy act entitled, "No Rhyme or Reason."

The program was well presented and everyone had a good time. Certain objectives of Kiwanis for 1944 are being emphasized throughout the country. They are Speed victory with win-the-war projects; Enlistment of every Kiwanian as an active participant in some phases of the war program; Exerting influence to insure a just and lasting peace. Emphasizing goodwill and understanding between Canada and the United States; Providing leadership to reduce juvenile delinquency; Rededicating to the support of the churches and other worthwhile institutions; Publicizing freedom of opportunity and provide enterprise as fundamental to the democratic way of life.

January 13th, at eight o'clock in the Underwood School. The program will consist of musical selections by Charles Pearson, bass baritone, and monologues by Adele Neff.

NEWTON SOLDIER'S TRIBUTE AT CHRISTMAS TO HIS MOTHER

Corp. William W. Arbuckle, one of five brothers in the service, has sent to his mother, Mrs. Mary W. Arbuckle of 15 Pennsylvania Ave., Newton Upper Falls, a Christmas poem he wrote especially for her while serving in Sicily. The poem follows:

TO MOTHER AT CHRISTMAS

As shepherds in field now gone with the years,
Saw a star in the heavens to quiet their fears,
So you shine o'er my head on this dark Christmas night,
As the Bethlehem Star bathed the Christ Child in light.

As the Orient Kings bent their heads at His side,
And made no attempt their devotion to hide,
But laid precious gifts by his two tiny feet,
So my heart, soul and love I give you complete.

For the name that you bear is the same as His mother,
And the sweetness she had has been born in another,
For, Mother, to me, you're the star of my life,
And a vision of peace 'midst these scenes of cruel strife.

Little Jesus has brought to a world steeped in sin,
The chance for each man a new life to begin,
And had I but the chance to begin life anew,
This new life would be dedicated to you.

For you'll always be with me—I know you're here now,
As on this hallowed eve in prayer I bow,
That God keep you safe 'til we see one another,
May this evening bring peace—

MERRY CHRISTMAS, DEAR MOTHER

UNVEIL THREE PLAQUES AT WABAN SUNDAY

The Waban Improvement Society unveiled three plaques with the names of nearly 500 men and women of the village in the armed services at ceremonies held in the Waban Library last Sunday. Mayor Paul M. Goddard was principal speaker and Thomas E. Shirley, president of the Society, was toastmaster. Group singing was led by Vice-President Fred Hackley and Rev. Stanley W. Ellis offered the invocation.

RATIONNEWS

Sugar Ration Remains Same
Sugar rations for home use will remain the same for another two and one-half months. Sugar stamp number 30 in War Ration Book Four becomes valid on January 16, and will be good for buying five pounds of sugar through the end of March. Sugar stamp 29, now in use, is good through January 15.

Plenty of Anti-Freeze
The nation's motorists are being oversold on anti-freeze and told of shortages that do not exist. Production of alcohol anti-freeze for this winter is 50 per cent more than last.

Items No Longer Rationed
Pressure cookers and feed grinders and crushers have been removed from rationing. Because the supply of pressure cookers will not meet all uses, the approval of the War Food Administration is necessary for purchases of pressure cookers for other than food preservation uses.

Changes In Stove Rationing
Eligibility requirements for rationed heating stoves have been widened. A consumer who has a heating or cooking stove that cannot be used satisfactorily is now eligible for a stove rationing certificate.

Two Million Flatirons Coming
A program to make two million flatirons for civilian use in 1944 has been approved by WPB. This amount will not come up to normal production but it will ease the hardships caused by two years of almost no production. It will probably be six months before many of these irons will reach dealers' shelves.

Rubber Heel Prices Set
Retail ceiling prices of 10 cents and 15 cents on pairs of rubber heels sold to consumers who desire to attach them to shoes in their own homes have been established by OPA.

Gas Ration For Servicemen
To aid servicemen in recuperating from illness or wounds received while on active duty, OPA has announced that they may be issued special gasoline rations for use in traveling to and from their homes or other places of convalescence. This special ration will be issued upon presentation of leave papers to a local rationing board and a letter from the attending medical officer certifying that transportation by automobile, rather than by any other means, will materially assist in the recovery of the servicemen's health.

To Get More Children's Wear
To insure sufficient production of infants' and children's wear, the industry has been included by the War Manpower Commission in its list of essential activities.

Tire, Tube Supply Still Low
Tire and tube quotes for January reflect the continuing shortage. The quota of 276,629 new truck tires is 13,890 less than the December figure, and the quota of 230,400 new truck tubes is 27,787 under the December figure. Similarly, a lessening in demand which usually occurs during the colder months accounts for lower January quotas for farm tractor and farm implement tires and tubes. The tire quota is 27,600, lower by 4,600 than the December figure, while the January tube quota is 23,000—lower by 9,200.

RATION TOKENS FOR RETAILERS

Retailers selling rationed foods should file their applications for ration tokens by Saturday, January 8, to be sure of having a supply when the token plan starts February 27, OPA says.

SGT. MULLEN LIKES "WHAT'S COOKIN' IN NEWTON"
The following are excerpts from a letter received by What's Cookin' from Sgt. Danny Mullen now serving in South America. Sergeant Mullen is the son of Mrs. Mary A. Mullen, 10 Jefferson st., Newton.

"Today—Christmas Day—here on foreign soil, my first copy of 'What's Cookin' in Newton' reached me. Many, many thanks for this copy of home town news, it is a definite step in the right direction. Home town highlights bring us in constant touch with the things we left behind. One article interested me greatly—that message of Mayor Goddard's in which he said quote, 'We appreciate better than before just what is going on over there, for we are having the opportunity to talk with soldiers who have been over and have come back to Newton for brief visits.' Your paper has made an excellent beginning, as more and more service men from Newton write home, you will have real living memoirs of World War Two. This will increase the interest much I am sure."

SPORTS... in a Nutshell

CHURCH JR. BASKETBALL RACE BEGINS

Getting off to an early start, the Newton "Y" Church Junior Basketball League opened its season at the "Y" on Saturday night with six of the seven teams competing. In the upset of the three-game round, Myrtle Baptist of West Newton, surprised by defeating Newton Methodist, 27 to 6. Newtonville, defending champs, defeated Eliot Congregational, 49 to 14, and Second Congregational downed Central Congregational, 39 to 21.

Myrtle Baptist, clad in new gray satin uniforms, was led by George Meredith and Bill Green, while Dick Hartwell and Bob Gusswell, last year's stars for Newton, were bottled up.

Newtonville was paced by Arvin Teschner, Earl Hanson, Gordon Carlisle and Warren Underhill, brother of Wayne Underhill, former Numec star. For Eliot, Stan Murgland and Billy Appel starred.

League games for next Saturday are Myrtle Baptist vs. St. John's Methodist of Watertown; Eliot vs. Second, and Newtonville vs. Central.

St. Sebastian's School Plans For Busy Sport Season

A busy winter sports season has been arranged by Rev. Russell J. Collins, director of athletics, for St. Sebastian's Country Day School, Newton, which is in the second year of its existence.

The school hockey team has entered the newly formed Catholic Hockey League and in addition the 10 league contests will play in dependent games with Middlesex School; Noble & Greenough, an Belmont Hill. A non-league schedule of a dozen games is being arranged for the basketball team.

Captain Vin Murphy has 22 boys out for hockey and 24 boys for his basketball squad. George Baker, who played football this fall, will captain the basketball team and Dan O'Brien will lead the hockey sextet.

Baker, quarterback on the football team, has been elected captain of next year's eleven.

Southern California passed the University of Washington dizzy and won at the Rose Bowl.

Georgia Tech defeated Tulsa 20-18 in the Sugar Bowl, Texas, and Randolph Field tied 7-7 in the Cotton Bowl.

South Western of Texas beat University of New Mexico 7-0 in the Sun Bowl.

Louisiana State won over Texas A. M. 19-14 in the Orange Bowl.

South Western Louisiana showed the way to Arkansas 24-7 in Oil Bowl.

Bruins defeated Chicago Hawks

6-4 Tuesday, Jan. 4, and with Toronto losing to Canadiens 6-3 are again in second place.

When the Bruins lambasted the Rangers Sunday Jan. 2 in New York 13-3 they equalled the high scoring mark of the National Hockey League season. This coming after their defeat by the Maple Leafs 5-2 on Saturday, Jan. 1, was just what the fans here needed to start the New Year 1944 right.

Bill Cowley now has broken the all time record with 258 assists knocking Frank Boucher's record of 256 assists into a cocked hat. What a man this Bill of ours, it's no wonder they call him the peeler's pivot with 52 points in 25 games. Bill makes stars out of ordinary wings, he is a great play maker and seems to be able to push that puck right to his wings who shoot the goals.

Bianchi Installed As Commander of D. A. V.

Other officers are Raymond Grieve, senior vice-commander; Martin Witmyer, junior vice-commander; Fred Farrington, treasurer; Robert McDonald and Dominic Vanzetti, new members of the executive committee; James Davis, junior past commander, and George H. Kempton, senior past commander.

WEDDING POSTPONED

A young man entered a florist's shop and ordered two dozen roses to be sent to his fiancée on the occasion of her 24th birthday.

On the card he wrote, "One for each precious year of your life."

After he had left the shop, the proprietor said to the clerk who had taken the order, "He's a good customer of ours. Throw in an extra dozen."

To date the wedding has not taken place.

A new private wrote to his family some days after he had arrived at camp:

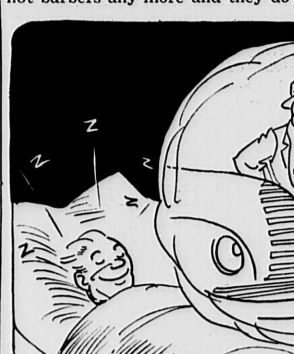

"I've gained sixty pounds since I came here—two pounds of flesh and 58 pounds of equipment!"

—CHANGES—
The war is responsible for many changes. The gentlemen who cut hair, for instance. They're not barbers any more and they do not operate in barber shops either. They are tonsorial artists, cut your hair in tonsorial studios and charge you seventy-five cents.

WE CAN DREAM, CAN'T WE?

(That's minus the tip, of course.) You don't just drive your car in to a repair shop, any more, to have the whatsthis tightened, say thanks, and drive away. You go down, make an appointment, then bring the jittery jalopy back a week from Thursday (at 2:45 p. m.) for treatment.

Then, nowadays, it's necessary to travel up to City Hall for stamps, points, and permission for everything. Most of the time, too, the place appears more like the lobby of Grand Hotel than a City Hall. As a matter of fact, a set of pajamas and a change of linen will be in order soon if things keep on...

The Ration Board houses the main arena and most of the big bouts are put on there daily. Some of them are grueling affairs, too. So much so, there's a rumor going around town to the effect that they are building a new wing to care for the good citizens and citizenesses who, as Colonel Eddie Hickey would say, "go bananas" up there in City Hall.

One ray of sunshine, a member of the board and a young lady blessed with more than her share of common sense, who has

In The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, a Lesson-Sermon will be read on Sunday, January 9, 1944, on the subject "Sacrament."

The Golden Text will be from John 6:33, "The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world." Other Bible citations included: "Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.... Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me" (Psalms 51:7, 10).

Also included in the Lesson-Sermon will be the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "We should strive to reach the Horeb height where God is revealed; and the cornerstone of all spiritual building is purity. Letters To The Editor

John Gasless had occasion to renew his gas ration coupon book, so he betook himself to City Hall. On the second floor the first door on the right has a sign which reads "Gas Ration." After waiting in line for some time his turn came to enter and he was told to go to the Engineer's office for his original papers. These procured, back to the aforesaid line. The papers now in order he was advised this time to go to the Coupon Room. Now here is the real rub. The coupon room is there but in no wise so labeled. On the wall within, however, is a sign bearing the inspiring word, "Quit-chackickin'." The purpose of this word no doubt is to remove from one any feeling or sign of irritation which one might have on entering or which might develop. The effect is very humbling for a minute, but the small bench and the pushing crowd was very upsetting to J. G., who is of a retiring disposition. However after six or seven not held back by shyness had barged in ahead of him, J. G. with elbows and clenched fists forged to the front and received his coupons.

That night, John Gasless had a beautiful dream. He dreamed he went to City Hall for coupons. There was a conspicuous sign in the hall reading as follows:

"First step—go to engineer's office for original papers.
Second step—Room No. — for check up.
Third step—Room No. — for coupons.
Please keep in line for your turn."

"Quit-chackickin' " was off the wall in the coupon room and all contestants were smiling.

To achieve their quota of $258,000,000 in the Fourth War Loan, Massachusetts citizens must contribute $100 each minute of the campaign; $430,000 each hour and $10,300,000 each day.

These figures, provided today by the War Finance Committee, are based on the 25 "working days" of the drive, excluding Sundays, and were released so that individuals, eager to do their share, might better appreciate the vastness of the task involved.

Miss Jones Is Ship's Sponsor

The 10,000 ton Liberty Ship, "SS George T. Angell," was launched last Saturday at South Portland, Maine, in honor of George T. Angell, founder, in 1888, of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, 180 Longwood ave., Boston, and for whom its Angell Memorial Animal Hospital was named. Miss Theodora Jones, of Newton Highlands, Mass., grand-niece of Mr. Angell, acted as sponsor.

Among those attending the launching ceremonies were: Dr. Francis H. Rowley, president of the Society, who succeeded Mr. Angell in 1910; Eric H. Hansen, Executive Vice-President; Percival P. Baxter, former governor of Maine and a director of the Society; a group of prominent municipal and state government officials, as well as many widely-known Humane Society representatives from Maine.

One of the features of the launching was the presentation, by Dr. Rowley, of a beautifully framed picture of Mr. Angell to the steamship company, to be hung in a suitable part of the ship, in memory of this true disciple of humanity.

The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is the second oldest Society of its kind in the country, last year having celebrated its seventy-fifth anniversary. In 1915, through the efforts of Dr. Rowley, the Angell Memorial Animal Hospital was opened, and today it is recognized as the largest and best equipped institution of its kind in the world. Nearly a million animals have been treated there during its existence and between 40,000 and 50,000 are treated annually at the Boston and Springfield Hospitals and the Attleboro Clinic.

Mr. Angell also founded the American Humane Education Society, sister organization of the Massachusetts S. P. C. A., in 1889, the purpose of which was to spread the gospel of kindness, justice and courage through the schools of the nation. He was undoubtedly the greatest leader of his time in humane work, particularly in his recognition of the value of humane education in the schools and colleges of the country, believing that only upon a generation trained in the vital principles of justice and compassion toward all sentient life could an enduring republic be built.

Let's Get Rid Of This Enemy

By BILL CUNNINGHAM

This challenged nation of ours is fighting two wars, and, as vital, as mammoth and as tragic as it is, the one against the Axis is the simpler. That one's a matter of straight shot and shell. We know who the enemy is, where he is and what it takes to exterminate him. Winning that one is a physical matter of closing with the beast, grappling with him and beating the life out of him.

That, we're doing, and although the struggle is terrific, victory will be ours. To that extent, the fight is temporary.

The other war isn't. While it lacks the thrills, the glamour, the action of the fight with guns and ships and planes, over the run of the years, it's equally deadly, and in one way or another, perhaps equally expensive. That's the permanent, the never-ending, fight against disease, and especially against the insidious, elusive and singularly merciless killer, and destroyer of children—Infantile Paralysis.

The simile of war isn't dragged in by the heels. The lives and the destinies of future Americans are at stake in both fights. The future of America is the children of America, and, in the realm of physical affliction, this murderous phantom, this Dracula of diseases, makes them its especial, but, by no means, exclusive prey. A strange part of its evil is that it customarily strikes at the strong. When its dread clutch moves into a home or a neighborhood, it usually passes up the weak and afflicted to snatch and mutilate the brightest and best.

It's a terrible, a skulking, almost, it seems, a gloating, enemy hard to fight because, unlike, men and ships, its form isn't known, its bases have never been located and its approach can't be detected. No home, no child, no community is immune.

Yet the slow, hard fight is on. Progress is being made, and this enemy, like the other will eventually be taken. The weapon is science; the strategy relentless research, and rigid control; the home front that, must loyally and unflinchingly back this attack, too, you and me. This fight is being waged for your home and mine, your kids and mine, your neighbor's, and America's neighbors' kids, and mine. None is safe until it's won.

And to carry this bitter battle, men and women of good will, and of all creeds, kinds and personal beliefs have banded themselves together in voluntary, unpaid, humanitarian service to assist The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis until American childhood can be freed from the threat of this insidious monster.

We ask you to join us. There's no particular formality involved. We have no rosettes to hang on you, no scrolls to award you. In fact, you'll even have to take most of your thanks from the mere knowledge that somewhere in this land, you've helped rekindle the light of hope in some little face you'll probably never see.

You can join us by making a financial contribution, large or small, as your means and your desire will allow. Large donations are acceptable, but, as a matter of fact, if everybody who reads this will mail us only a dollar, we will give a dollar to the Fund soon to start in your town, and in this district for at least another year.

Then, in restaurants, drug stores and other public places, in your locality, you'll find coin collection boxes devoted to the cause. You may be solicited in your homes, or by postmen, firemen or policemen, who come to your door. Give them a dollar, or, at least, your spare change.

I personally assure you that every cent goes straight into the fund. Contributions will be acknowledged. The funds, of course, are completely audited and open to anybody's inspection.

What you may not know is that half these funds go to the central National Foundation to help finance research into the causes of the disease, and better methods of prevention and treatment, but the other half stays in the county of those who contribute to be spent, under the direction of qualified experts, upon the care of local victims and the training of local doctors and nurses. In such things as the Kenney method and other measures of fighting and controlling the always possible epidemic.

Even money mailed in, as requested above, will be credited to the county of the sender, and if it so fell there to carry on the fight for the protection of the sender's own general community. Thus, there's personal protection in such contribution, but there's something bigger than that. There's general protection. There's service to all mankind the world over.

The children of the world, the Americans of tomorrow, need your help. You can join some of the finest people in this nation if you enter this fight. In fact, they're pleading with you to identify yourself with them. Any misconception that, because the name of President Roosevelt has been used so extensively in connection with this work, it has any political significance, or affiliation, is absolutely ridiculous. It is strictly

Trustees Of All-Music School Meet

On last Thursday evening, Mrs. William Lloyd Garrison, Jr., of West Newton, opened her home for a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the All-Newton Music School. After-dinner coffee was served at seven-thirty o'clock with Miss Mabel T. Eager, honorary president, and Mrs. George L. Fernald, secretary, pouring.

Following the social hour, those present adjourned to the living room for an interesting musical program presented by Miss Veronica Durick, pianist, and Miss Irma Olson, cellist, with Miss Agnes Olson, accompanist, all members of the Music School faculty.

After the music, Mrs. Ray A. Tudden, president of the Board of Trustees, presided at a short business meeting, the outstanding feature of which was the official launching of the drive for War Bond sales being sponsored by the Music School during the month of January. Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, chairman of the Women's Division of the Newton War Finance Committee, explained that the Music School had set the goal of $1780 in Bond and Savings Stamp sales for the purchase of a Field Ambulance, an important piece of equipment for the armed forces. Mrs. Hay reported that the response to the appeal had been more than gratifying in every way since the start of the drive. To date these sales amount to over $1200 and as it is still very early in the drive, it is thought likely that more than one ambulance may be purchased.

Special guests at the meeting were Mrs. Gladys Avery Lebert and Dr. Ralph MacLean, both of the Advisory Council of the school; James H. Noon, member of the Newton Community Chest Budget Committee and liaison officer for the Music School, and J. H. Pettengill, Jr., Executive Director of the Chest. Others present were Mrs. Fredrick S. Bacon, Mrs. Ernest T. Cobb, Miss Mabel T. Eager, Mrs. Ray A. Tudden, Mrs. George H. Fernald, Mrs. Harry P. Forte, Mrs. William Lloyd Garrison, Jr., Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, William Lester Bates, Frank A. Day, Jr., James H. Remley, Quinton W. Wales, members of the Board of Trustees; Miss Marion Chidsey, Miss Irene W. Forte, Miss Lillian W. West, Mrs. Arthur Scipione, and Mrs. William C. Worth of the Music School staff.

Named Chairman In Newton Area

At a luncheon Tuesday at the Parker House presided over by Bill Cunningham, well-known sports writer and assistant to John C. Hagerty, State Chairman of the Infantile Paralysis Drive, Thomas W. Cleveland of Newtonville was appointed Chairman of the campaign in Newton. The 11th year of these campaigns for the nationwide raising of funds to combat infantile paralysis and to treat those afflicted with this dread disease, who because of financial reasons are unable to obtain this treatment, otherwise fatal, how it is transmitted and how best to isolate it, treat it and conquer it. The balance of the fund stays right here in this county to be used to fight this disease whenever it appears in our community, to buy shoes and braces for those afflicted and to provide them with the best treatment that medical science can bring to bear. 1943 brought a serious increase in this disease in this country, our neighboring State of Connecticut had a serious epidemic. It is hoped that the citizens of Newton will contribute to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, whose help may be required here at any time in the event of an outbreak of this dread disease.

The local committee will provide coin boxes in all public places, factories and stores during the next few days. Cash or checks may be sent to Mr. James B. Melcher, Treas., Newton National Bank.

THE YEAR 1944 DECISIVE PERIOD

The year 1944 promises to be a decisive period in the war which on Saturday will enter its fifth calendar year. There are hopes, recently raised to the status of an outright promise by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, new commander of the main force preparing to invade Europe, that 1944 will be the year Germany will be defeated.

Gen. Eisenhower's words in expressing his unqualified prediction of European victory in 1944 are worth repeating. He said: "The only thing needed for us to win the European war in 1944 is for every man and woman, all the way from the front line to the remotest hamlet, to do his or her full duty."

A test of the determination of all of us to do full duty is forthcoming soon in the Fourth War Loan, which begins Jan. 18. The government again is calling on the American people to subscribe a huge sum in extra war bonds to help meet the financial cost of carrying the war to the enemy.

In this drive, the stress will be on participation by as many individuals as possible. This is the type of war bond buying which is an attack on two fronts at once, both a smash at enemy military power and a blow at inflation. For Massachusetts, the quota of individual sales has been set at $258,000,000, an amount equivalent to $65 for every man, woman and child.

It is a severe challenge, but one not impossible to meet. By succeeding in the Fourth War Loan drive, Massachusetts can show that its people, "to the remotest hamlet," are doing their full duty.

LUCY JACKSON CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The auditorium of the Lucy Jackson, D. A. R., chapter house was filled with members and guests on Monday afternoon, Jan. 10, when a group of state officers and chairmen were honor guests and speakers at the regular chapter meeting. The Regent, Mrs. Holcombe J. Brown, presided and introduced the speakers.

Mrs. Frederick G. Smith, State Regent, outlined briefly the work of various D. A. R. committees, educational, philanthropic and patriotic.

Mrs. Herbert E. McQuesten, State Vice Regent, told us that the furnishings have been stripped from many rooms in our beautiful buildings in Washington, D. C., and the Red Cross has been given free use of the rooms for the duration of the war. The Massachusetts room is now the office of the Red Cross Prisoners of War Service, our Board rooms have become class rooms and there is even a day nursery for service men's children whose mothers are doing defense work.

Mrs. Henry J. Winslow, State Treasurer, gave figures showing the cost of operating these buildings and other expenditures including gifts of over $22,000 to approved schools, $5000 to Ellis Island work $6000 in scholarships, etc. Over $175,000 has been contributed by members to the Blood Plasma Fund.

Mrs. George M. Moore, State Registrar, told of our steady growth in membership.

Mrs. Herman J. Robinson, State Chairman of National Defense, sketched work for service men, including the new service center for officers established recently by the D. A. R. in the Hotel Vendome, Boston.

Mrs. Irving J. Merriam, State Chairman of Junior Groups, spoke of our younger members whose chief projects are work for crippled children, blinded soldiers, and the making of thousands of cookies for the USO.

Also speaking briefly were Mrs. George Lowell, State Corresponding Secretary, and Miss Ruth Drowne, Curator. Guests were present from Wayside Inn, Betsy Ross and Lydia Partridge Chapters and other patriotic organizations.

Following the meeting, tea was served by Mrs. James G. Patterson and her committee with Mrs. William Morgan and Mrs. Frank M. Sherman pouring. The table, a vision of green and silver, was decorated by Mrs. John P. Holmes.

TEKAKWITHA CLUB

The January meeting of the Tekakwitha Club will be held Sunday afternoon, January 16th, at 3:30, with Miss Mary Murphy presiding.

The Guest Speaker will be Rev. Joseph P. Shea, photographer and lecturer, who will present his beautiful colored motion pictures of "God's Wonderland." With the presentation of the pictures, Fr. Shea will give one of his interesting and enlightening lectures.

The club members will discuss plans for a winter sports program to take place in February.

Ten will be served after a musical program under the direction of Miss Marjorie Guerin.

NEWTON W. C. T. U.

Rev. Ben Roberts of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church spoke on "Peace Thoughts in War Time" at the Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union meeting held on January 6 at the Newton Centre Baptist Parish House. Three returned missionaries were present. One, Mrs. Harriet Briggs, retired, told of Japanese officers seen reading their Bibles.

POLITICS

WITH COLOR

By P. W. C.

"One Man—Wendell Willkie"

Not long ago I said that I would pick up a copy of the scurrilous booklet written by C. Nelson Sparks, former Mayor of Akron, Ohio, and give my readers my impression of it. Easier said than done. No copy available anywhere without taking too much time browsing around. So, recalling that Bill Cunningham of the Herald lived within a stone's throw of your columnist, his co-operation was sought. He not merely loaned me his copy of the book but very kindly gave me some important notes and addenda which he had used in writing up his powerful piece for the Herald. Incidentally, Willkie fans will be delighted to learn that this particular gem by Bill has been reprinted and distributed somewhat widely throughout the country.

Now, for the book. Frankly, if I was an innocent voter with no special knowledge of politics, I think that I might be seriously influenced by it and wonder if I had not been swept off my feet in 1940, when, according to Sparks, Willkie "blitzed" the G. O. P. convention in Philadelphia. Many parts of the book are so very plausible and mention so many of the "insider" criticisms of Willkie that one is tempted to believe that some of the rather new charges which are made. However, there is a very definite personal animus running through this so-called "Inside Story" which might make even an innocent reader slightly suspicious and inclined to check up both on the so-called ACTS about Willkie and also on the author himself.

Three points stick out most clearly. First comes the rank hypocrisy of the writer in dedicating the book to his son in the armed forces and stating in the same breath that the reader should "oppose those who seek to destroy our national self-determination and combat any and all demagogues who seek to barter the sovereign rights of the American people for self-aggrandizement." That is an insult to untold millions of Americans who voted for Willkie and give him a vote less than five million behind our tremendously powerful vote-getting President.

Second point. There are numerous references of considerable importance to people now deceased. Obviously, nobody can check up on these references. There is a lot about the late Glenn Frank of Wisconsin and the late Hugh Johnson, who is supposed to have made a very slighting comment about "Windy Willkie." That's a nasty one, isn't it? Other anecdotes are related minus the names of the distinguished persons involved. Cheap stuff.

Third point. The meanest chapter of the lot is entitled "Ten Years in Akron." Sparks states flatly that "The story of Wendell Willkie begins in Akron, Ohio, and not in Elwood, Indiana." He goes on to suggest, in the meanest sort of language and with much innuendo that Willkie carelessly omitted all reference to his ten years in Akron BECAUSE of the nature of his career there. He then goes on to paint a sordid picture of Willkie, a heartless defense attorney for a soulless public utilities corporation, which he successfully defended in numerous damage suits. Willkie is depicted as "unfeeling and ruthless." In fact, about one and a half pages out of the scant forty-eight pages in the entire booklet are devoted to a detailed listing of some fifty specific cases which Willkie handled in a manner which greatly pleased the public utility involved. Well, my only comment about "THAT" is to suggest that there are millions of Americans—millions of Chinese, Russians and other United Nations citizens who know better than to fall for this diatribe on Wendell L. Willkie. You could put in one basket ALL the other potential candidates for the G. O. P. nomination in 1944 and then let Willkie stand by himself and offer the two baskets to the world at large. Willkie would hang over the entire opposition like a circus tent over a troupe of trained acrobats. As for Willkie, personally, and Mr. C. Nelson Sparks, you might as well carry an elephant with a flea. And that is being a bit tough on the flea.

Space does not permit a further analysis of this book this week, but mention should be made of the fact that Mr. Sparks was the campaign manager for Frank E. Gannett, the New York state publisher, who was also a candidate for the G. O. P. Presidential nomination. After blandly accusing Willkie of spending or causing to be spent in his behalf an improperly large sum of money at Philadelphia and prior to the convention, Sparks candidly admits that "I am free to confess that one campaign manager I spent properly large sum of money more money than I should have for my candidate or than I should have been permitted by law had there been a law restricting such expenditures in behalf of a candidate for a Presidential nomination." I know something about that, too, because I received a huge amount of direct-mail propaganda in behalf of Gannett, who never had a ghost of a chance to get anywhere. Sparks certainly has a nerve to talk about spending money.

Next week I shall continue my discussion of the story of the flea and the elephant. I am still betting on the elephant. How about you?

P. W. C.

BUY WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

Washington — This is what Washington big-wigs are thankful for in 1943. Also what they believe, fear and hope for in 1944. The coming months will bring victory in Europe and victory closer in the Pacific. Also overwhelming economic changes and perhaps a new era of culture for all mankind as the result of leading nations having grown more closely together out of their common needs during this war.

Mussolini's downfall, increasing Nazi and Jap defeats, the United Nations' postwar pacts and repeal of the Chinese exclusion laws by the U. S. Congress are cited as signs of democratic progress in 1943. In the field of science the most important achievement of the past year is believed to be the development of methods of mass production of penicillin and the treatment of other infections with this drug that had proved resistant to the sulfa drugs.

On the home front J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, has won the respect of all Washington as one of the outstanding officials of 1943. Those who remember the sabotage of World War I agree that Hoover and his organization have thus far done a job second to none in keeping this country free of saboteurs. As to the accomplishments of the Administration both Republicans and Democrats, except perhaps a few Roosevelt-hating diehards, agree that the following measures have definitely benefited the country and will be continued by whoever occupies the White House on January 1, 1945:

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which guarantees bank deposits up to $5,000.

The Home Owners Loan Corporation, which helps loans homes from foreclosure.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, which protects investors.

Old Age Insurance.

The Minimum Wage and Hour legislation.

The Federal Housing Administration.

The Rural Electrification Administration.

The conservation of natural resources.

Reciprocal Trade agreements.

Slum Clearance.

Federal aid to the blind and crippled.

And last but not least, we quote Clarence Francis, chairman of General Foods Corporation, and one of the foremost authorities on food and food distribution in this country. Mr. Francis believes that "despite the fact that the United States in 1943 produced a new record volume of food for the fifth consecutive year, civilian and military needs for next year are even greater, with Government goals set at least at a 6 to 8 per cent increase."

"This means that our fighting men will be the best fed in world history. In 1944, 14 per cent of the nation's entire food supplies will be allocated for military and is almost double the 1942 percentage."

"In 1943 our allies received about 12 per cent of our food, but due to Russian victories in the Ukraine, 1944 may witness a slightly smaller drain on our resources."

Was all this possible in a war economy complicated by manpower, transportation, and material shortages?

"First, American civilian cooperation along rationing lines permitted accumulations of valuable food stocks."

"Second, the farmers in 1943 raised the per capita food production to 107 per cent of the base period of 1935-39, and should reach higher percentages in 1944."

"Third, voluntary Victory gardeners raised an estimated 7,949,000 tons of food in 1943, or about 42 per cent of the entire nation's vegetables."

"Fourth, America's 45,000 food manufacturers bent every effort to process and package a record tonnage of foods under great handicaps."

"Despite all this, civilian food prices are lower than any other commodity price. About $90,000,000 was spent by American consumers for living expenses in 1943. Of this, $27,000,000, or 30 per cent went towards the purchase of food. This is the smallest percentage in the past 74 years."

Mr. Francis also predicts that in 1944 the United Nations will enjoy the rewards of American industrial ingenuity and patriotic endeavor on the food front. "It's bitter tea for Hitler and Hirohito to swallow."

And now let us take a peek at Nazi predictions and outlook for 1944. The following is from an editorial entitled "Regrouping" which appeared in a leading Nazi newspaper a few weeks ago. We quote: "What has happened? What occupies our minds? What conclusions do we draw from recent events? These are the questions we ask in moments of tension such as today...The German eastern front is engaged in a comprehensive disengaging action, leaving considerable territory to the enemy. The thoroughness of the destruction which we have left behind justifies the conclusion that we do not reckon on the reconquest of the abandoned areas for the time being. Let us consider the facts soberly: the Caucasian oil has remained a phantom, the wealth of the Kuban was a short dream, coal and ore from the Donets have been written off. Now we must also temporarily renounce the Ukrainian wheat as part of the black earth district has been won by the Russians. Nobody wants to praise all this.

"In the west we have lost towns as the result of terror raids, in the east we have yielded ground, in the south we relinquished command of the central Mediterranean. These are losses, but they cannot knock us down. Looking at things soberly we realize that we are in the midst of a two front war..."

"In order to be objective, one must admit that the military events just mentioned have been only the secondary cause of this psychological depression. The primary cause for it is the Allies' unceasing air offensives...The disastrous effects of the major bombing raids have already been adequately described. They were at the origin of the Italian capitulation. In Germany they are even more greatly feared because in the case of destruction or even of simple damage, it is impossible to replace the simplest clothes, furniture, utensils or food, and living quarters are not to be found. Many other factors contribute to this demoralization. The extended civil mobilization draws young and old, men and women of all classes, towards the armament factories...and so little is known about the husband, son or father who left home months or years ago. People are tired of waiting for hours in shops, tired of continually making sacrifices, of renouncing all pleasure in life, of feeling danger continually suspended overhead."

We agree and believe this Nazi knows whereof he speaks!

Lions Club

Algerman Theodore R. Lockwood was the speaker at the last meeting of the Newton Lions Club and was introduced by Asa D. Blakeslee, 1st Vice President of the club.

Lockwood, who is General Manager of the Earnshaw Mills, in an interesting talk told of conditions which he felt were indicative of a future with which we would have to deal. A future, which would require many hard decisions by all, for Mr. Lockwood thought, the new postwar era will bring many new responsibilities. Disregarding politics and party affiliations, he spoke of the part that the voters would play in reshaping the new policies which would be theirs to decide, on the many local, state and international issues, and he therefore urged that every citizen should be given now to these many perplexing problems.

President Dave Buxbaum called on all members to redouble their efforts towards making the dance on Saturday, Jan. 15th, a success.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST OF NEWTON

391 Walnut St., Newtonville

Services—Sunday, 10:45—

Wednesday, 8:00 P.M.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read on Sunday, January 16, 1944, in The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and in all of its branches, will be "Life."

The Golden Text, "This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son," is from 1 John 5:11. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God" (Romans 8:13, 14).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We should remember that Life is God, and that God is omnipotent...The understanding 'that Life is God, Spirit, lengthens our days by strengthening our trust in the deathless reality of Life, its almightiness and immortality" (pp. 394, 487).

Gives Talk On 1944 Outlook

The guest speaker was our own President Herbert N. McGill, who spoke on the "Economic Outlook for 1944." The year 1944 will prove to be another boom year despite industrial reconversion, and the Federal Reserve Production Index for the current year will average about 4 per cent over 1943. PURCHASING POWER will remain of top-heavy proportions and the ratio between money in circulation and the volume of goods available will continue to spread. It is a foregone conclusion that taxation and bond buying will not sop up surplus purchasing power. TRANSPORTATION faces the toughest year since the outbreak of warfare. Automobiles are rapidly wearing out. This is likewise true of trucks. Buses and street cars have reached the saturation point. The railroads must take up the slack, and yet all along the line the outlook for replacement is far from reassuring. That prearranged production goals have been reached is no grounds for complacency. All forms of transportation will be "overtaxed" in 1944.

"NO INFLATION will occur in 1944. Controls, price ceilings, conservation measures, etc., will prove sufficiently powerful to hold price fluctuations within comparatively narrow limits. However, the pressure is still on the up side, and until the European phase of Global War II is successfully completed, increased production costs, under the leadership of higher wage rates, plus narrowing profit margins, will necessitate price advances in a piecemeal manner. The price of coal will be higher this year. This will probably be the case in petroleum and its derivatives. Iron and steel prices will likely be revised upward. Changes will be limited, but our estimate is that the composite McGill Price Index will average between 4 and 5 per cent higher next year. The bulk of that increase will again be due to agricultural commodities."

"THE COST OF LIVING will surely average higher in 1944 than was the case in 1943. This is in keeping with economic trends. Here again the advance will not be in any sense radical, but, reflecting higher costs for fuel and foodstuffs, the upswing should average at least 5 per cent. The point to keep in mind is that whereas a strenuous effort is being made to "hold the line," the records show that there are too many leaks in the dike to warrant solidarity. The INVENTORY situation will change quite rapidly during the new year. Remember, the over-all productive power is now of fabulous proportions, in excess of known requirements. The termination of war contracts automatically releases supplies of material and labor. A strenuous effort will be made to direct surpluses into industrial channels, but nevertheless, the year 1944 will be characterized by a stockpiling primarily in government hands."

VISITING ROTARIANS included Walter Phillips, Louis Bachrach, and M. W. Melcher all of Boston; Walter Bailey of Watertown; Edward Englund, Daniel Viles and Herb Morang of Waltham; John Kent and guest—Harold Johnson. Benquist, Ashley Hayden, and Bill O'Mara.

Theodore R. Lockwood was taken into the club as a new member, sponsored by Roy S. Edwards. Mr. Lockwood is with the Earnshaw Knitting Mills of Newton.

This WEEK, This WORLD

by Ted Friend

GERMANY'S GREATEST DEFEAT may not be its Russian defeat at all but the decisive frustration of its much vaunted U-boat war.

The punishment which Hitler's submarines have taken at the hands of the Americans and British is disclosed in estimates which indicate that the Germans have lost no less than 300 of the 600 U-boats which once constituted their proud U-boat fleet. German submarines, at the current writing, are being sunk at a faster pace than they can be replaced.

The success of the United Nations fight against the U-boats is based upon effectively screened convoys which have all but outmoded German submarine fighting techniques. Most effective against the Germans has been small but well implemented aircraft carriers, many of which have been built in the past twelve months, which accompany and protect United Nations' Merchant Marine packs. The air protection provided by these swiftly moving plane carriers makes it unsafe for U-boats to approach convoys with any degree of self-assurance.

As in the last war—and as a first step to its total defeat—the Germans have been swept from the high seas.

THE UNKINDEST CUT of all, ancient Mussolini's Italy, is the recent statement by the Greek Premier, Emmanuel Tsouderos. "The internal division of the Italian people in two factions, one cobelligerents with the Allies under Badoglio, the other continuing the policy of alliance with the Germans under Mussolini, is an additional reason for the Italians not being capable of any real capacity for war."

Greece, quite obviously, has not forgotten it was able to humble Fascist Italy when that country moved in across the Adriatic to crush it. Had it not been for the might of Germany, which came swooping down for the kill from the north, it is likely that little Greece would have been able to deal Italy a humiliating defeat.

One can forgive the Greeks their suspicion of the might of Italian arms—then and now. WHEN NOTRE DAME UNIVERSITY, at South Bend, Ind., sacked by the Germans, had a distinguished scholar for calling Gen. Franco of Spain a Fascist—an appellation which Franco himself would admit—it emphasized the important chasm currently existing in Catholic circles relating to that unhappy country.

It is no secret that many Catholics consider support of Franco by some misguided elements a grievous mistake. In spite of many excesses perpetrated in the heat of civil war by Spanish Loyalists, it is recognized that the Falangists, representing the rottenest feudal elements in Spain, and backed by the bloody Moors, are a worse evil than ever were the Republicans who, for all their imperfections, were attempting to build a more humane and democratic society.

When Franco destroyed the Spanish Republic he did it at a cost of 2,000,000 Spanish lives. Today, much because of the loss of its best blood, Spain is an impoverished, bankrupt, decadent state which is sure to pass from the European scene if ever the Spanish people again acquire the democratic right of deciding upon the form of government which they prefer. For the present, however, Spain must suffer under the reactionary oligarchy made up of large landowners, aristocrats, industrialists, army men and hangers-on, all of whom are profiting from the Franco dictatorship. That the bulk and file of Spanish people, however, are of definite anti-Fascist cast, is proved by the fact that Franco still keeps over a million anti-Fascists in prison camps in fear of a revolt against his rule.

In spite of Notre Dame's regrettable act of repression against Dr. McMahon, liberal Catholic opinion appears to be accurately reflected in his statement: "I thought it a tragedy that Catholics submitted so many years to the policies of Mussolini. That type of Catholicism is now trying to creep away from the limb that he found himself on. The Catholics today who believe that Franco is the savior of Spain and religion are going to realize shortly enough that Franco's cause is the cause of fundamental Hitlerism and Fascism."

Official Notre Dame may not agree, but most liberal Catholics do!

WHAT MANNER OF WORLD this may be after the war is indicated by the Tri-Partite monetary agreement which has been entered into between the representatives of the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg, who have come to an understanding, relating to a program of economic stabilization. Other regional get-togethers are being contemplated by the Czechoslovaks and Poles at another end of Europe, and the Greeks and Yugoslavs in the Mediterranean sector.

The postwar world is sure to see many federations—much in the manner of the Pan-American Union—which will have the double duty-job of reducing economic friction and developing political understanding. With the encouragement of, and grouping around, the more powerful nations such as the United States, Great Britain and Russia, such federations, each directing the destinies of specific parts of the globe, may be the forerunner of effective peace-maintaining "Good Neighbor Policies" the world over.

The sooner the better!

PARAMOUNT THEATRE

Music and Laughter will head the bill at the Paramount Theatre, next Saturday night, January 15, for the Coast Guard Sparmobile is coming to town! One of the most compact and best known of all service shows in this area, the Sparmobile has spent the better part of the past year touring New England in the interest of SPAR recruiting. Its prime mission has been to enroll more SPARS in the United States Coast Guard, and at the same time to entertain as many people as possible.

During the summer months, the Sparmobile presented a series of block dances in the cities and towns of New England, where, under the floodlights, the program were enjoyed by a total of almost a half a million people.

This winter, the block dances have been abandoned in favor of a series of theatre appearances, and next Saturday night, January 15th, the people of Newton will have the opportunity to see this Coast Guard show.

Master-of-ceremonies of the Sparmobile group is quartermaster second class Marc Ballero, who, prior to his enlistment in the Coast Guard, had won a nationwide reputation as an impersonator. Graduating to fame via Major Bowes Amateur Hour, he soon became a feature in many of the country's theatres and supper clubs. He also continued in his radio work with character appearances on the Fred Allen and March of Time programs.

The musical portion of the program is headed by Francis X. Sullivan, a quartermaster second class, who lends a fine tenor voice to traditional Irish songs. Introducing a feminine note is Audrey Peterson, who shares vocal honors with Sullivan by singing some of the popular melodies of the day. Instrumental honors go to the SPARMobile orchestra, which also provides accompaniment for the two singers.

That the Sparmobile is much in demand these days can be seen by its schedule, which, besides including three theatre appearances each week, provides for three radio broadcasts as well. In addition to this, many unscheduled performances are given in various hospitals and servicemen's centres. In their recruiting efforts during the past months, the members of the Sparmobile have done very well indeed, having played a considerable part in raising the number of SPAR enlistments to the present total of almost 6,000.

As the quota is not yet filled, however it is hoped that after Saturday Night's performance at the Paramount Theatre, Newton, still more women will go to Recruiting Headquarters, 70 State st., Boston, and inquire how they, too, can become SPARS.

NEWTON JUNIOR COMMUNITY CLUB

The Community Service and War Work Committee of the Newton Junior Community Club, in co-operation with the Fort Devens Committee of the Newton Community Club planned a Sunday afternoon tea on January 9th, for relatives and friends of service men at the Station Hospital at Fort Devens.

Miss Marjorie W. Aldrich of the Senior Club and Mrs. C. Lawrence Barber of the Junior Club were co-chairmen of this event. The group left Newton at 12:30 o'clock and were driven by the American Red Cross, through arrangements made with Mrs. Stanley W. Steadfast and Mrs. Philip K. Brown of the Motor Corps. The drivers were Mrs. F. Marston Butts and Mrs. Richard L. Kenney.

In addition to the chairmen, the following persons were among those going to Devens. Representing the Senior Club, Mrs. Frederick G. Howe, Jr., Mrs. Alvah Cummings, Mrs. John L. MacNeil, and members of the Newton Community Club War Work Committee: Miss Adelaide B. Ball, president, and Mrs. Raymond B. Laddo, Second Vice President. The Junior Club was represented by Miss Alice M. Andersen, president; Miss Ruth W. Aldrich, vice president; Miss Rhoda C. White, recording secretary, and Miss Betty Tobey, chairman of the Membership Committee.

Each person was responsible for providing refreshments which consisted of eight hundred sandwiches and four hundred cookies. Other Senior Club members who made sandwiches were Mrs. Maurice W. Donnon, who was unable to go because of illness, Mrs. Charles M. S. Foster, Mrs. LeRoy P. Guion, Mrs. Herbert G. Bedell, Mrs. Arthur N. O'Rourke, and Mrs. William T. Cass. Because of the distances that people have to travel to visit the hospital, these have proven to be a real convenience and service. On Sunday, March 26, the Community Service and War Work Committee will sponsor another Sunday afternoon tea.

The group also visited Ward 41 as the Senior Club has furnished the adjoining sunroom for which the Junior Club provided the radio. The flowers used on the refreshment table during the tea, which were donated by Matthew F. Ruane, Florist, of Newtonville, were left in Ward 41, as well as games, cards, and magazines collected by the Committee. This is the first event of co-operative War effort between the two Clubs.

Hospital Aid Association In Annual Meeting

Once a year, in January, the seven hundred and fifty members of the Newton Hospital Aid Association are given an opportunity to hear at first hand what organization has been able to offer in the way of concrete aid to the Newton Hospital. The record for 1943, as reported at annual meeting on Tuesday morning, January 11, in the Nurses' Home, also revealed incidentally the inspirational leadership, untiring vigor, and loyal cooperation which exists among the officers, directors, and members.

Mrs. Charles B. Floyd, retiring president, was unable to be present, but her place was ably filled by the first vice-president, Mrs. Theron Walker. Mrs. Walter L. McGill, clerk of the Association, first read the minutes of the annual meeting of one year ago and then gave her annual report for 1943, which included the list of donations made to the Hospital by the Hospital Aid Association. Funds for these have been derived from four sources - membership dues, activities, and the two year-round enterprises, the Hospital Benefit Shop and the new Coffee and Gift Shop. Two notable activities of the year were the annual spring fashion show and bridge, and a musicale. Proceeds from the Benefit Shop's treasure sale in December were twice as large as in 1942. To the Newton Hospital within the year have been given: a blood pressure machine; two electric breast-pumps; a daniometer (shock barometer); to complete the blood donor unit; a spotlight for the operating room; two Chase demonstration dolls; furnishings for two waiting rooms; 22 clinical thermometers for the graduating nurses; $150 loaned to a student nurse; $400 for patient bed care; six subscriptions to newspapers for the wards; and $25 for a children's Christmas fund. The largest expenditure has been for the installation of the Coffee and Gift Shop, opened on the 9th of August.

The account given by Mrs. Francis H. Williams of her year's work as chairman of the Hospital Benefit Shop impressed her listeners with the value of this enterprise as a social agency as well as a permanent thrift-shop. Mrs. Williams emphasized the demand on the part of customers for men's and children's clothing, shoes, and rubbers, and the need of china and art objects for window display. Miss Maida Flanders, treasurer of the Hospital Aid Association, gave her annual report; after which Mrs. McGill and Mrs. D. Morley Lodge, chairman and treasurer, respectively, of the Coffee Shop, reported concerning that flourishing new project. The number of customers served has reached approximately 35,000 since the beginning. The Gift Shop, under Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Sawyer, has also become very popular and profitable.

Mrs. Edward Sawyer, Mrs. Gordon Wilkes, and Mrs. Benjamin Taylor serving as nominating committee, brought in the following slate, which was given a favorable vote:

"Your Hospital" was the subject of a talk in which Mr. Gerhard Hartman, superintendent of the Newton Hospital, gave a full and gratifying account of the hospital year just passed. Although adhering to the rule restricting admission to residents of Newton and Wellesley, the Hospital had a waiting list throughout all but the summer months, with 6,527 admissions for the year. Eleven hundred and three babies were born, as compared with 982 in 1942.

The Hospital is unique, according to Mr. Hartman, in that its personnel, even though reduced, has remained adequate. Although the medical staff has fallen off 43 per cent, there has been no reduction of the normally high standards. Hospital services have been expanded by the addition of an x-ray department and a department of medical anesthesia. In the matter of Blue Cross utilization in Massachusetts, Newton Hospital is second only to the much larger Massachusetts General Hospital. Volunteer helpers have increased in number from 489 in 1942 to 753 in 1943.

Turning to future prospects for the Hospital, Mr. Hartman said the board of trustees expected to

Ceiling Prices Now Effective

The Price Panel of the Newton War Price and Rationing Board announced recently that New Community Ceiling Prices became effective Jan. 10, 1944. It was stated further that every food store in the community is expected to post these new ceiling prices in a location easily accessible to shoppers so that they may be freely consulted when purchasing articles under community ceilings.

In addition to previously listed items, the new list will include these additional items: oleomargarine, crackers, baked beans, cocoa, condensed soup and tea. If a retailer has not received his new lists, he should consult his local War Price and Rationing Board office which will supply him on request.

With the appearance of the 1943 pack of canned fruits and vegetables, new brands will be found in the stores that do not appear on the OPA lists. Ordinarily, no unlisted brand should sell at a ceiling price higher than that of a listed brand. There may be exceptions, but many prices on new unlisted brands may be lower.

Kiwanis Activities

George Van Buskirk, newly installed president of the Newton Kiwanis Club, took up the gavel to preside at the regular meeting last Tuesday. A fine meeting was enjoyed under his leadership. He reminded the club that members are invited to meet with the Boston club at 12:15 on January 13th at the Hotel Bradford to hear George Stringfellow, president of the New York Kiwanis Club.

A new member was inducted by Ben Louis. The new member being Vincent Hammersten, formerly of the Brookline Kiwanis, who is now living in Newton Highlands. Mr. Hammersten was appointed to serve on the Weekly Notice Committee. Another feature of the meeting was the presentation by International Trustee, Jim Gallagher, of the past president's button to Jim Riggs. Gallagher completed his term of office in the past successful year. Frank Battles also made two awards; one to George Van Buskirk for four years perfect attendance, and one to Jim Gallagher for sixteen years perfect attendance. Ed Derocher reported on the recent New England District Convention which he attended. Jack Janse announced that Billy Lane of Woburn will be the speaker next week. Announcement was also made that the February 22nd meeting will be postponed for one day and will take the form of a supper meeting and power sale to be held at the "Y" auditorium at 6:30 o'clock on the 23rd of February.

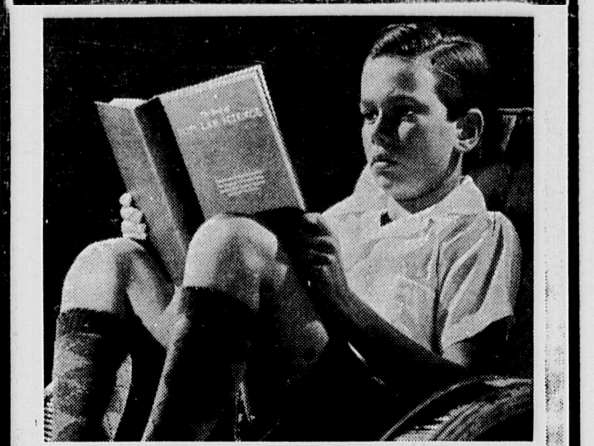

The speaker of the day was then introduced by Walter Hood. He presented Senator Richard S. Bowers, past president of the Brookline Kiwanis Club, who spoke on "Kiwanis and the World." Mr. Bowers paid tribute to the quality of Kiwanis membership over the country, and spoke of the part Kiwanis members are playing in connection with the war effort. He mentioned the hindrance to progress caused by strikers, most of whom he said are doing pretty well during these war times. He spoke of the necessity for preserving democracy, preventing inflation, and making impossible future wars. In the Senator's opinion we are fortunate to be living in times like these when our influence can shape history. The principles of Kiwanis, he said, are the kind that will lead us to the best there is in democracy. The ideals of service, friendliness, and good fellowship are most important in the present day, and individual character count more than race, color, or creed, according to Senator Bowers. In closing he read excerpts from the Kiwanis Constitution, emphasizing the principles to which Kiwanis is dedicated.

Boneless Meat
Some packers plan to bone-cut and cut meat in their own plants after the war. Besides saving shipping costs, bones kept at the packing plant can be made into feed, gelatin, bouillon and so on. Poultry, too, will be eviscerated, inspected, washed under high pressure, frozen and wrapped in a moisture-proof, transparent wrapper ready for your pan or oven. You'll be able to buy a package of breasts, livers or whatever cuts you want, besides a whole chicken.

Use Scouring Powder
For galvanized buckets, tubs, and garbage pails, you can safely use coarse scouring powder. Don't try to keep it shiny because if you keep shining it, likely you will take off the thin coating of tin. That exposes the basic metal which may rust. Dry tin pans carefully for this reason. If you want to take off some particularly hard-to-remove burnt food, try boiling a little soda and water in the tin pan. But never boil it longer than five minutes, at the most.

Absentees High
That sickness, inefficiency, swamped communities and hardship must be reckoned as a cost of breaking ship tonnage records appears from the absentee record for the first nine months of 1943. An Emergency Fleet corporation study of 320,000 shipworkers showed that 17.8 per cent in steel shipyards and 13.2 per cent in wooden shipyards stayed away from work every day over that period.

Bluestocking
The term bluestocking was not intended to be so conservative as to remain with those who are merely conservative but went beyond into the realms of priggishness and intellectual snobbery. Supposedly it came into being with the habit of an English gentleman named Stillington who wore blue worsted stockings to gatherings of literary women instead of the customary black silks.

Little Starch in Soya
Soya products contain little if any starch. For this reason women should not expect to use them as a thickening agent, as they would use wheat flour. They will fill up space when combined with liquid, but cannot be depended upon for a binding agent in a cream soup, for instance, though they might well be used as a protein fortifier in combination with a wheat flour in such a dish.

Certain Hawks Beneficial
Red-tailed, red-shouldered and broad-winged hawks do much more good than harm because their diet consists mostly of vermin. They are beneficial, and as a rule should not be killed.

Hughesovka

The Russian government, in 1870, gave to a British subject named Hughes a concession to manufacture iron rails. Operations were started and from 1880 to 1914 British, French and Belgian capital were invested in the industry's development which was profitable because of the Donetz coalfield and the iron and manganese deposits in that area. Hughesovka (Yuzovka) was the name of the town where the company was situated but it has since been named Stalin. The iron rail industry fell off following the 1917 revolution but was revived about 1924 and progressed rapidly.

Railroad Signals

The railroad conductor has the following set of signals on the bell-cord: Two shorts: when standing, start; when running, stop at once. Three shorts: when standing, back up; when running, stop at next passenger station. Four shorts: when standing, apply or release air brakes; when running, reduce speed. Five shorts: when standing, recall flagman; when running, increase speed. Six shorts: when running, increase train heat. One short, long, one short: shut off train heat. One long, when running, brakes sticking; look back for hand signals.

Income From Livestock

Cash received for livestock represents the American farmer's largest single source of cash income. Figures for the last full calendar year, made available by the department of agriculture, show that livestock growers received nearly a third of their income, or a total of $4,811,000, for their livestock. Producers of course, paid out large amounts for feed, help and other operating expenses. The sum was $1,569,000 more than they received for meat animals during the preceding year. The increase, approximately 48 per cent, reflected not only a higher level of livestock prices but also materially larger marketings.

Camouflage Penetrating

Camouflaging, an art which depends on the use of color, suffered a major setback when the infrared camera was developed. Infrared light, which is not visible to the human eye, can be photographed on special film. Thus two objects which to the eye have the same color may photograph differently with the special film, due to different amounts of infrared received from them. This means that the camouflage artist cannot judge from the appearance of a color how it will look to the infrared camera.

Women in Refineries

To date most of the women in refinery work are under 35 years of age, but experience with older women has led one refinery to report successful use of women laboratory workers between the ages of 55 and 60.

The Road Ahead

... will not be an easy road. For many, 1944 will be a sad and lonely road. But it is up to us to make it the road to complete Victory, which includes not only a military triumph over our enemies, but also a just and lasting peace, and a satisfactory solution of the critical problems of the post-war era.

That this war will end is a certainty. That the United Nations will be victorious is also a certainty. When this victory will come is not known to man; but the problems to be solved after victory are known to all of us, affect all of us, and must be solved by the cooperative efforts of all of us.

If we desire the continuation of democracy in fact as well as in name, if we believe in free enterprise, now is the time to think and to plan for their perpetuation. Those who would destroy democracy and the system of free enterprise are thinking and are planning; they will be ready and glad to take over if the rest of us are not ready.

Boston Edison Company

Shipyard Absenteeism Absences from work from November, 1942, through June, 1943, ran from 10.3 to 7.0 per cent in the larger maritime yards having over 2,500 workers. Current surveys indicate that at least one-third of the absences in maritime shipyards have to do with health and accidents. The shipyards where inexcusable days off are fewest, are those where plant and union committees keep close tab on lost days, and where leaders are made responsible for the attendance of their crews.	Retained Spanish Influence Columbus first set foot on Puerto Rico in 1493, landing near Aguadilla on the western end. From that time, through centuries of Spanish rule, Puerto Rico retained much of the influence of its mother land. Even after it became a territory of the United States, it lost little of this heritage and today's Puertorriqueno is equally as proud of his native tongue as he is of his American citizenship.	Time Zones There is one meridian from which nearly all world calculations are reckoned, and this basal line passes through Greenwich, England. When it is noon there, it is midnight exactly 180 degrees east or west; and for every 15 degrees east or west of Greenwich the time is one hour later or earlier. If it is 10 a. m. in Hamburg, Pa., Eastern War Time (9 a. m., E.S.T.), it will be just before midnight of the same day in New Guinea.	Outdoor Storage The most satisfactory outdoor storage is a tight wooden barrel of steel drum, which gardeners may get from a junk yard. The barrel or drum may be buried on its side with a heavy cover of dirt, or it may be set into the ground upright with an inch or two protruding above ground, to be covered by a rat-proof cover, and layers of hay or straw and soil.
Buckwheat Harvesting Some methods of harvesting buckwheat result in loss of grain by shattering. If the binder is used, binding should be done when the plants are tough with dew. Small bundles facilitate curing. Buckwheat shocks should not be capped because the moisture in the succulent stems must escape.	Infra-Red Cooking Experimenters believe there's a future in cooking with lamps radiating infra-red rays. These are now used on tank-production lines to dry fresh paint in three minutes. Fruits and vegetables will be dehydrated also, which adds up to less vitamin loss and faster cooking.	Clean Up After Crop Some gardeners feel that the best way to clear the garden is to wait until late fall when all the crops are harvested. Actually, if left this way the job seldom gets done. A better plan is to follow each crop harvest with a cleanup, onions one week, sweet corn the next, tomatoes, cabbage and so on, as harvests stretch over several months.	Pleasure Traveling Every month more than 29 million persons are riding regularly scheduled intercity buses and trains merely to make social visits or for amusement. These 29 million persons represent approximately 25 per cent of the total monthly passenger load on intercity buses and trains, the ODT said.

The increase, approximately 48 per cent, reflected not only a higher level of livestock prices but also materially larger marketings.	Chinese Customs In practice of their customs, the Chinese suspend bits of red cloth from the roof of a new house to promote joy and attach green branches to the scaffolding to discourage evil spirits. Brides must be adorned in red. Soldiers use color in their religious rituals to strengthen themselves against their enemies.	Average Incomes In 1942, better than eight out of ten families had incomes of more than $20 a week. The middle area of incomes from $1,000 to $5,000 embraced 74.1 per cent of all families, and only 18.5 per cent had incomes of under $20 a week. The top group with incomes of over $5,000 embraced 7.4 per cent.	Farmers' Share The farmer's share of the consumer's dollar spent for a group of specified foods is near the record high levels of World War I, having reached 57 cents in February and March, but dropping to 56 cents in April, 1943.
Principal Coal Bituminous coal is used in 12,582,894 homes—38.8 per cent of all the occupied dwellings in the United States. In practically all of the country except the Northeast, bituminous coal has been the principal domestic fuel for years.	Food Buying According to reports nearly 60 per cent of the food buying is still concentrated on Fridays and Saturdays.	Provide Mineral Mixture In hogging down corn and soybeans, soybeans alone, or peanuts, growers should provide their hogs with a good mineral mixture.	Green Tomatoes Green tomatoes can be used in various dishes, either fresh or in pickles. Green tomato soup, green tomato pie, and fried green tomatoes are worth serving to the family in the season after the first frost.

Beever, president of the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council of Massachusetts. The new children's policies will be issued in amounts up to $500, and will be entitled to dividends at the regular rates, which may be applied to reduce the net cost of the insurance.

"The new plan providing Savings Bank Life Insurance on children without medical examination gives recognition to the great strides which have been made in reducing juvenile mortality," Mr. Beever observed. "In addition it reflects the excellent mortality experience of the Savings Bank Life Insurance system since its establishment in this commonwealth thirty-six years ago. It also provides a practical answer to wartime problems of transportation and the limited number of physicians available in many communities."

"All types of Savings Bank Life Insurance, including the new policies for children, are available through 142 savings banks, located in all parts of Massachusetts."

RECREATION NEEDS INCREASING

Recreation needs are increasing as the war continues, the National Recreation Association has declared in a statement received here this week by Mr. Louis Fabian Bachrach, the Association's sponsor in Newton.

The statement, issued in connection with an appeal for funds for the work of the Association in 1944, further points out that "adequate community recreation programs exist for only about one-fifth of the American people. Small children of working mothers, as well as the mothers and fathers themselves, need recreation leadership. Servicemen and war workers create a major community problem if an adequate recreation program is not provided for them."

Wholesome recreation opportunities for youth are considered one of the means of combating juvenile delinquency, which is the concern not only of adults but of youth itself, as evidenced by the following letter received by the National Recreation Association.

"Will you please send me at once a 'Teen Trouble' pamphlet... I like me in uniform but I haven't gone out with any. I don't get in trouble like some of the girls in your story. I'm 16 years old but it is so hard to get a decent boy. I don't feel like going out with boys. Then if I do go out with boys people say her mother doesn't care who she goes out with. But my mother does, my mother is always worrying about me."

Recreation departments, believing strongly that the resources of recreation belong to all the people and should be freely used by all the people, nevertheless are often restricted in what they are able to do by lack of time and space and by inadequate leadership and budget. The National Recreation Association acts as a clearing house for all recreation problems and is supported by voluntary contributions.

Two Newton Plants Cited By Navy

Milliken Machine Co., West Newton, and W. I. Harlow Co., Newton, are listed in a statement by Under-Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal as engaged in furnishing material for the landing craft which will play an important part in the 1944 Allied offensive.

Secretary Forrestal's statement is in part as follows: "Success of the forthcoming offensives of 1944 depends upon this Nation's completion of the vast landing craft construction program."

"Invasion dates have been set. American men are going to storm hostile shores, more difficult than any we have heretofore tackled. "Heavy casualties must be expected. However, the more landing craft we have on Invasion Day, the more power we can put in our punch, the more versatile our attack can be, and the lower the casualties will be in this most hazardous of military operations, the landing on a hostile shore in the face of a determined, experienced, well-equipped enemy."

"The Navy—with the aid of the manufacturers, shipbuilders and workers of the Nation—already has produced 20,000 landing craft, embracing various types, from 450-foot dock ships to amphibious tractors. An even more ambitious program is in prospect—we are engaged in building 45,000 additional such various special types."

"The total program, therefore, involves 65,000 vessels and in addition, some 15,000 miscellaneous small craft, rubber boats rafts, etc., are needed to complete the huge project."

What About Advertising?

In 1917 during the last war, this group continued to advertise their products and services:

Sunkist Oranges
Eastman Kodak
Coca-Cola

Phoenix Hosiery
Corona Typewriters
Wrigley's Gum

Gillette Razors

and many others

This group began new advertising ventures in 1917:

U. S. Rubber Co.
General Tire Co.
Lucky Strike Cigarettes

Pepsodent Tooth Paste
California Prune
Growers' Assn. and a host of others

Eversharp Pencils and a host of others

This group quit advertising in 1917:

Pearline
Pear's Soap

Sweet Caporal

Sapolio
Cottolene

Some tried to stage comebacks later. They spent a lot of money trying to recapture public fancy, but were unable to do so. Their effort was wasted because new and aggressive companies had moved in and won the public through advertising.

NEWTON DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION

Owing to the illness of many of its officers, Mrs. Louis Arnold presided at the regular monthly meeting of the Newton District Nursing Association, which was held at the Library of the Clafin School on Monday, January tenth.

Mrs. Elmore MacPhie spoke of her work among the physically handicapped, particularly the blind and what tremendous satisfaction is experienced by those who give their time to this work.

Mrs. MacPhie introduced Mr. Arthur F. Sullivan, the new Director for the Blind in Massachusetts. Mr. Sullivan gave a most interesting talk on the work being done for and by the blind and spoke of the rehabilitation program now being carried out by the state, under federal jurisdiction. Besides the classes in braille, one of the most popular features is the "talking book machine," which can be sent about to the various homes. It is enjoyed not only by the blind person but, by the entire family, who are apt to remonstrate vigorously when the machine is transferred to another place.

Miss Hilga Nelson the District Nursing Executive Director, reported that the past month had been an unusually busy one, due to the illness of several of the nurses plus an increase in the demand for nursing service.

The first class of Nurses' Aides for the district was completed by Miss Nelson this past month. It requires a course of seven or eight lessons, after finishing the regular Nurses Aide or Home Nursing course.

These volunteer workers with the District Nursing Association are to be known as Nurses' Aides. The Aides are willing to perform any service in a home where there is illness, while the Neighbors devote themselves wholly to helping in the care of the who are ill. They will all assist the Nurse in their regular duties and the work promises to be very interesting, as well as most valuable to the community.

War Fund Quota Set At $170,000

Charles B. Floyd, Chairman of the Newton Red Cross War Fund Campaign for 1944, announces that Newton's quota is set at $170,000. This is the largest amount that the Newton Red Cross has ever been called upon to collect, but Red Cross needs have ever been before. On the eve of allied invasion, and with more of our men being poured in the theatres of action, the American Red Cross has an enormous job to do, and every American is asked to help.

"I am confident of the fullest co-operation from the people of Newton in our 1944 War Fund drive," states Mr. Floyd. "Newton has always given enthusiastic support to its Red Cross chapter, and I'm certain that this year, more than ever, with loved ones from so many homes now overseas, every man, woman and child in Newton will want to do his share."

REJECT PROPOSAL TO AMEND BUILDING LAWS

The Newton Board of Aldermen at their meeting on Monday night rejected a proposal to amend the building code. The 1943 board had voted to amend the code by repealing the regulation which required that bus shelters be constructed of either brick or stone.

The matter had been vetoed by Mayor Paul M. Goddard with an explanation that the period between the passage of the order on Dec. 27 and the end of the year did not give him time to study the matter, and the 1943 board before dissolving on Jan. 1 sustained his veto.

Chairman Henderson Inches of the Claims and Rules Committee at the meeting of the new board presented the committee's report recommending that the proposed amendment be rejected, and in reply to a question from Alderman Kenneth Pryor, said that if rejected the amendment could be brought before the board for action again this year.

The reappointment by Mayor Goddard of Albert H. McAuslan as a member of the Board of Assessors for three years was unanimously confirmed by the board, also the appointment of Fire Chief John L. Keating as forest warden and inspector of petroleum for one year from Jan. 1, 1944 and of John D. Haughey as superintendent for the suppression of gypsy and brown tail moths.

The board approved the bonds covering Clarence C. Colby as city treasurer and collector of taxes, with the Century Indemnity Co. as surety.

The following appropriations were passed by the board: $879.95 for pension of Simon W. Gorrier of the Street Department; $65 for the Recreation Department for part-time directors during the skating season of 1943; $2001 overtime pay for engineers and firemen in the Water Department.

The board voted favorably on the following applications for certificates of incorporation: C. Gordon Brownville, 20 Watertown rd., Ward 7; E. Joseph Evans, 111 Hobart rd., Ward 8, for incorporation of Children's Haven.

James R. Corcoran, 33 Bolton rd., Ward 2, for change of name from "Pen and Pencil Club of Boston" to "Army and Navy Officers Mess."

Renewals of auctioneer licenses were granted by the board to the following: J. Frederick Clune, 23 Channing rd., Ward 6.

Eugene Joseph Conroy, 87 Derby st., Ward 3.

Peter M. Conley, 217 Hunnewell terrace, Ward 7.

Ralph T. Laffie, 49 Carleton st., Ward 7.

Samuel W. Macey, 127 Cotton st., Ward 7.

Come On, America!
It's 1944!

THIS is what we've been working for all along. This is the year to hit and hurt the enemy. This is the time when everything you do counts double. If we all get together and do all we can, we'll be over this hurdle and well on our way to complete and crushing victory.

No question about the men in uniform—they'll go "all out." But can we count on you to back them all the way? Your quota is where you work—you've got to buy your War Bonds and then buy more, until every last loose cent you have is fighting. Tough? Of course, it's tough—unless it is a sacrifice you're simply not doing your share!

Make the sacrifice now—buy more than the extra $100 War Bonds you count on you for—winning the war is worth any sacrifice you make. Besides, you aren't giving, you're lending to America! You'll get back every dollar you invest in War Bonds, with interest.

An extra $100 War Bond now is the minimum for everybody—can't we count on you for more?

This sticker in your window means you have bought 4th War Loan securities.

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, "If men understood their real spiritual source to be all blessedness, they would struggle for recourse to the spiritual and be at peace; but the deeper the error into which mortal mind is plunged, the more intense the opposition to spirituality, till error yields to Truth" (p. 329).

Mayor Kane of Woburn Addresses Kiwanis

Jack Janse of the local Kiwanis Club, program chairman for the month of January, presented Mayor Billy Kane of Woburn as the feature speaker at last Tuesday's meeting. Mayor Kane spoke to the club about the improvements effected in Woburn during his regime. Mayor Kane has been connected with municipal government for twenty-five years and spoke convincingly about his efforts to put through a bill requiring teachers to be certified to teach their particular subject before being assigned to teach. He claims that many cities show an increase over the past few years in the number of teachers employed, whereas the number of pupils has decreased, and claims that some adjustment should be made to reduce the number of teachers. Mayor Kane also spoke about the power which is vested in certain school boards which he maintains sometimes become stronger than the will of the people.

Items of business included an appeal of President George in behalf of the March of Dimes for the Infantile Paralysis Fund. An offering was taken in this connection. The directors were also reminded of the coming meeting on Monday, Jan. 31st, at 6:15 at the Log Cabin in Waltham. "One Man—Wendell Willkie"

Following up last week's discussion of C. Nelson Sparks' scurrilous booklet entitled "One Man—Wendell Willkie," let me add a few more observations which may be pertinent. I have been studying the Foreword somewhat carefully and it is most illuminating. The author has made a studied effort to impress the reader with his sincere desire to write objectively, to utilize all the authentic facts and figures and to come to his conclusions in an honest, logical manner. He states flatly that he has "no desire to either praise or to condemn." That statement burns me up. Never have I read a book which contained so much obvious venom that it literally dripped from each page. Untruths, half-truths, misleading statements and innuendo are rife. Despite this (and the author, of course, knows that this is true), the Foreword winds up as follows: "I believe that the people, and particularly the members of my party, are entitled to all of the information that they can get on the subject so that if they made a mistake in 1940 they will be less likely to repeat it in 1944."

Now, if Mr. Sparks really wants the people to have all possible information on this subject, why does he not break down and tell us all the precise reasons for writing this book? Who gave him the original idea and who helped him dig up his so-called facts? Who helped him finance the proposition and why? How does it happen that a nationally unknown figure like Sparks should give birth to a book which fits in so perfectly with the long-term planning of Messrs. Hoover, Taft, Landon, Pew et al.?

Another thought. What has Brother Sparks been doing himself the past three years? Why did he suddenly burst from obscurity and rush into print at this stage of the game? If the entire Willkie movement has been so unhealthy and superficial ever since its inception, why has the author kept silent so long? Incidentally, what has his own record been, both before and after the so-called "Willkie Blitz" in 1940? If it is so important that we should have all possible light on Mr. Willkie, how about having all possible light on his extremely unimportant detractor?

The 1944 Campaign

Danton Walker of New York advances an interesting thought. He suggests the interesting possibility that Willkie might conceivably bolt the Republican party and start a third party movement this year. According to Walker this move "would be welcomed by the anti-Willkieites, who believe he would thus sidetrack enough Roosevelt votes to guarantee a regular party triumph."

Personally, I find it difficult to take such talk too seriously. It is most difficult to visualize men like Sinclair Weeks, for example, "taking a walk" from the G. O. P., to which he has given so many years of earnest service. And yet who is there who has done more to promote Wendell Willkie in the East than our former Mayor? If he should stand fast, no matter whom the 1944 convention nominates, how could one expect some lesser leader to participate in a bolt of sizeable proportions? On the other hand, I will grant that hundreds of thousands of the ordinary rank-and-file will very likely bolt the G. O. P. if some utterly futile candidate should be nominated. To take an extreme case, what do you think would happen if Landon was once again nominated? It is a horrible thought. That, in itself, would assure Mr. Roosevelt a fourth term without lifting a finger. Even Mr. Taft would make the going relatively simple for the President. Likeable Governor Warren of California wouldn't help much either. He is too little known in other parts of the country. Undoubtedly, he is a coming man, but this is a bit too early for him to fly his kite.

Finally, may I suggest that my readers follow closely the various radio speeches by nationally-known Republicans from now on. Governor Willis of Vermont made a powerful address recently and drew a violent reply from John D. M. Hamilton, who charged Willis with trying to foreclose the G. O. P. nomination. He also objected to having the Vermont Governor put the notorious Gerald Smith in the same category with Taft, Landon and the rest of the leading anti-Willkieites. I can see his point. It would be interesting to find out the reaction of the typical Vermont Republican to the Willkie speech. According to Hamilton, it was not too good.

Hunt and King

It has been suggested that President Hunt of the State Senate and Speaker King of the House would be well-advised to refrain from taking up too much time and attention at the various city and town meetings of a political nature which they attend so frequently. It appears that they sometimes blanket the local dignitaries and embarrass them. 'Nuf sed.

Will you be showing this Badge of Honor in your window?

It's the sign of a well-financed farm or ranch, too!

THE Fourth War Loan is on! Every farmer, every rancher in America is called to the greatest offensive yet . . . the buying of more War Bonds than he has ever bought before.

There are lots of other places we could be putting our money, sure! And there are lots of other places our boys could be than in foxholes and slit trenches. But none of those other things we'd rather be buying or doing amount to anything right now. The boys are doing their job. We've got ours to do to take every cent we can scrape together and buy War Bonds with it!

And what a lot of sense it makes, after all. War Bonds are the safest and best financial reserve ever offered us. We will have buildings to repair, machinery to replace, and improvements to buy later on. Where's the money coming from if not from today's earnings? And where's the money coming from for that long vacation, for the children's education, for the new car?

Take a look at the types of War Bond investments that are offered. Pick the type that fits your particular needs. And then write out the biggest check you can and order Bonds today from your postmaster, your bank or your Production Credit Association. When the money you are saving goes to work for you tomorrow, you will look back on this day as the wisest day you ever lived!

Rotary Club

At one of the largest attendance meetings of Rotary last Monday members and guests listened to most interesting and entertaining talks by Rev. Norman Vincent Peale, D.D., pastor of the Calvary Church of New York City. Dr. Peale is author of "Art of Living" and other books, and is active Rotarian in the New York Rotary Club.

His subject was "How To Live in Times Like These." Dr. Peale told his listeners to have faith in the United States. He has visited many research laboratories and said they are ready to "spill over" with new, revolutionary, start products and gadgets the like of which the world has never dreamed. He told of the great advances made in aeroplanes both at sea and in the blue print stage. It will come into being after the war and of the thousands of recon recontable bombers and the pilots mechanics which will be available. These planes converted cargo use will be able to carry the freight now being handled combined allied shipping or by U. S. Railroads. Ports of call will not be coastal cities like Boston, New York or Norfolk, but land cities such as Chicago, Detroit and Denver.

The trains of the future will be equipped with stabilizer, and will run 40 miles on a gallon of gas, buildings will be heated electronically, television is around the corner, individuals will carry "walkie-talkies" around with them, and a great field will be opened up in plastics, light metals and synthetics. The day will come when the Japs will not know what to do with all the rubble they took in the South Pacific area. Peale pointed out that all these new developments can be no post war depression providing we do not allow bureaucratic or monopolistic individuals take control of the fruits of men's minds.

Dr. Peale said that the way an individual to live a happy complete life is to be cured of disease with which nearly everyone is afflicted. The name of the disease is TENSION. He said that instead of listening to the o'clock news broadcast at night and then going to bed to try to sleep, read the Bible thus relieving tension and go to sleep.

Dr. Peale offered the following recipe for relieving tension: Relax the body, Relax the mind, Relax the soul and get mind fixed God, not in a theological sense but in terms of something tender and beautiful. Fix the mind on sor passage, and here Dr. Peale quoted the following as an example: "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Dr. Peale was the guest of Howard Selby, who introduced the speaker.

Thos. V. Cleveland, Newton chairman of the Infantile Paralysis Drive commented on the work of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. He said coin boxes will be provided in all public places, factories and stores this week for the collection of fund cash or check may be sent to M. James B. Melcher, treasurer of the Newton National Bank.

Jim Melcher reminded the members and guests that the 4th War Loan Campaign begins Tuesday, Jan. 18, and urged all to buy at least one more $100 bond. He said that Bonds are on sale at a Newton Banks.

Merry-Go-Round

all, everything, as Tardy the tailor, would say, was hunky punky.

Then came the snowstorm of January 7th. Freddie Caruso will never forget it! He almost got himself hurt that morning. It was one of those things that happened, just like this, as Freddie drove his cab along Washington st., West Newton. It was snowing hard and maybe the thick flakes were hypnotic, or it might have been only goblins, or simply that Freddie forgot to keep his left hand high. Whatever the reason, the car took off. Climbing the sidewalk, it continued on through the iron safety fence and turning over twice in its descent, landed top down on the railroad tracks, eighteen feet below. Freddie still at the wheel!

Things were in a bit of a mess for a while. The taxi cab was in a badly bent condition and they had to fix down the New York flyer at Newtonville. Everything was straightened out in a short time though. The taxi was raised and towed away and soon, the trains once again were puffing along on schedule.

SURPRISE

Locals are betting that a young sailor who courts one of the neighbors' children is satisfied, in his own mind at least, that night maneuvers are far more dangerous than the other kind. It's possible, too, that his ideas on the advantages of matrimony are also undergoing a decided change.

It all had its beginning, when he came calling and found his Big Moment had forsaken her office typewriter for a job in the Navy Yard as a steamfitter's helper. Working the swing shift, she'd developed numerous muscles during the past few weeks over there and, in one way or another, had caught up with journeyman's knowledge of boxing as well.

This rib tickling steamfitter's helper is of the dainty, feminine type, about five feet three inches tall and blonde. So far as things pugilistic are concerned, yet expect her to scream faintly and swoon at the very thought of a male in anger. It would have been a pretty good guess that her sailor sweetheart shared that opinion, too. Shared it, that is, until the other night when, as they were waiting for the trolley that would take his overly clad sweetheart to work, he began, playfully, to push her around the waiting platform.

He pushed and the little steamfitter's helper resisted successfully. Baffled and with one of those "Oh you will, you will" leers, the sailor put up his guard in feigned anger and led with a left that brushed his sweetheart's pert nose. That was a mistake—a naval error, as they say—for he was out of position. There was a flurry of arms and overalls—and then it happened! In a split second the most surprised sailor in the United States of America was sitting on the cold cement platform gazing in shocked amazement, with his one good eye, at the tiny blonde who was coolly nursing her bruised knuckles!...

So, how's about all of the locals who catch up with the Merry-Go-Round, writing a letter to some boy or girl over there who may be lonesome tonight...?

The award of the Distinguished Flying Cross to Staff Sgt. John E. Corcoran, Jr., aerial gunner and radio operator on a Flying Fortress bomber, upon completion of 25 combat missions over Germany, was reported in a cablegram from England to his parents, Deputy Fire Chief and Mrs. John E. Corcoran.

At the same time they learned that he had been assigned to duty as an instructor in aerial gunnery for flyers about to enter combat, somewhere in England.

Sgt. Corcoran had already received the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf clusters.

Sgt. Corcoran's parents are both veterans of World War I. His father served in Battery B, 101st Field Artillery, Yankee Division, in France. Mrs. Corcoran served with the Army Nursing Corps in England, France and Germany. They were married after an overseas romance.

Sgt. Corcoran was graduated from Newton High School in 1941 and attended Boston College for one year. He enlisted Sept. 3, 1942, and attended Gunners School at Tyndall Field, Fla., and Radio Army Training Command Pilot School.

MARJORIE GOODALE WEDDED TO OFFICER

Miss Marjorie Goodale daughter of Patrolman and Mrs. Charles A. Goodale of 1075 Washington st., West Newton was married last week to Lt. Walter L. McLean, U. S. Army Air Forces, son of Henry T. McLean of 97 Auburn st., Auburndale.

The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock in St. Bernard's Church, West Newton, by Rev. George F. Muleachy. A reception followed at the home of the bride, Mrs. Dorothy Goodale, who was her sister's maid of honor and John Brothers of West Newton was the best man.

Miss Goodale was graduated from Newton High School in 1943. Lt. McLean was graduated and commissioned Friday at the Blackland Field, Waco, Texas, Army Training Command Pilot School.

Have Another

A man went to the bar and ordered a Martini, drank it, chewed up the bowl of the glass, and threw the stem over his shoulder. He continued this for about six Martinis and noticed that the bartender was staring at him.

"I guess you think I'm crazy, don't you?" he asked.

"I sure do," the bartender replied, "the stems are the best part."

Not So Subtle

She: "My dad takes things apart to see why they don't go."

He: "So what?"

She: "You had better go."

FROM THE NEWTON CENTER METHODIST CHURCH

A beautiful silk service flag, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miliken of West Newton, was dedicated at the morning service, Sunday, December 12. The Honor Roll of all young men was read by Mrs. M. G. Baily, and the pastor, Rev. H. D. Hawver, led in a responsive prayer service written especially for this occasion by Dr. E. S. Brightman.

Lieut. Sarah C. Harris of the Army Nurse Corps, whose home is at 203 Lowell ave., Newtonville, and who has been stationed in Palestine for nearly a year, attended the Christmas Eve service in the Church of the Nativity in the town of Bethlehem. On a recent furlough, Lieut. Harris, with other members of the hospital staff, took a trip to Damascus and Beirut in Syria.

Miriam Fall Brightman, of 42 Braeland ave., Newton Centre, was married in the chapel of the church on Sunday afternoon, December 26, to Corporal Donald Pearce Eddy of the Army Air Forces.

Aviation Cadet Russell Fleming, training at Chapel Hill, N. C., and Harold Parker, A. S. 1-C, at the U. S. Naval Training Station at Newport, were home on leave and attended service on Sunday, Jan. 16.

THREE POLICE OFFICERS GET PROMOTIONS

Two of Them Now In Service

Three members of the Newton police force, two of whom are in the armed services, were promoted from reserve to regular patrolmen by Chief Michael T. Hughes.

The men appointed were Lt. Martin W. Daley, U. S. Army, 42 Hale st., Newton Upper Falls, now stationed in Virginia; John J. Regan, 385 Centre st., Newton, serving overseas, and Ernest R. Berry, 305 Webster st., West Newton, who is on active duty in the Police Department.

The appointments were made to fill three vacancies on the force. Berry has been serving as a military substitute and a member of the reserve force.

The vacancies on the reserve force resulting from the promotions will not be filled because of the absence of a Civil Service list of candidates for appointment to the force.

A PRAYER

From St. Mary's Church, Newton Lower Falls

Rev. Roger Bennett, Pastor.

Almighty God, who art with all thy children, everywhere, and dost ever stretch forth thy loving hand to guard and to guide, we confide to thy care and strength all those who in the service of their countries, have left their homes and families for distant places... especially those known and dear to us...

We hope that they may be safe of body but especially we pray that they may be saved from evil. We know how loneliness and boredom, restlessness and the hatreds of war expose them to temptations of sex and of drink; of lying, killing and covetousness. Steady them by thy grace, give them an unwavering knowledge of thy self through a vision of Jesus Christ; help us to do all within our power to relieve their monotony and to keep fresh in their souls their sense of home and comradeship, the roots of the good life; stir their compassion through the needs of the lonely and wounded and prisoners they meet among their comrades or their foes. So fill them with thy Spirit and turn them to thy service, most gracious Lord, that they and we may be at one in thee and still live in the confidence and fellowship of work-companions and children of thy kingdom, companions of him who gave his life that we might know thee, Jesus Christ, our blessed Friend and Saviour—Amen.

4 NEWTON SERVICEMEN STAGE SOLEMN NORTH AFRICA REUNION

A note of solemnity entered the New Year's Day observance of four West Newton servicemen, who met by chance in North Africa and spent the holiday together. It was revealed in a letter from Pvt. Francis H. Murphy, Jr., of 198 River st., West Newton.

"Brought together by a most unusual stroke of luck," Frank writes, the four West Newton residents, three soldiers and one sailor, spent most of the time "discussing home." The group also visited the grave of a West Newton hero, First Lt. George A. Duane, who was killed in November while "performing a meritorious duty."

The West Newton quartet comprised Frank, Cpl. Tech. Joseph M. Devoy, Jr., of 280 Cherry st., Cpl. Tech. Roger E. Kiley of 66 Webster st., and Fireman 1-C Charles H. Cosgrove, U. S. Navy, of 1149 Washington st.

MUSIC SCHOOL BOND-STAMP STAFF LISTED

Advance sales of Bonds and War Savings Stamps to help in the Fourth War Loan Drive has been going on at the headquarters of the All Newton Music School since the reopening of school after the Christmas vacation on January 3 and will continue through January 31.

Those in charge of the drive at the Music School are Mrs. Ray A. Eusden, president of the Board of Trustees, Mrs. George N. Abbott, chairman of the volunteer committee for sales, Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, chairman of the Newton War Finance Committee, and Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, chairman of publicity.

NEWTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Travel about town, particularly pedestrian travel, is more or less a catch-as-catch-can affair these chilly January days. Practically no one bothers to stop, look or listen anymore. Everything's set in a rush tempo and by the general outlook, hereabouts, our local chapter of overworked Guardian Angels will soon be staging a sit-down strike in their own self-defense.

There's usually a reason for everything and the principal reason, maybe, for the current "don't give a darn" attitude could be the published reports of light- or automobile travel and the fact that the automatic traffic signals no longer regulate automobile and pedestrian movements as in days of yore...

Set to flash only, the lights do not turn red for a minute, then amber or green for another sixty seconds or so. They simply blink on and off now and it's the drivers and pedestrians that blink at minute intervals, apparently, judging by the manner in which they have been bumping each other around...

The dimout hasn't helped matters either. When the moon is tucked behind the clouds, it's really the height of something or other in the darkness department here. It's just the time, however, that the careless brethren turn in the casualties. Pedestrians have the right of way, of course, but that particular privilege has no discount rating in the local hospital after a motorist mows them down, unseen, in the gloom.

As a matter of fact, the utter disregard of local traffic regulations became so flagrant in the factory area, a short time ago, that Watertown police summoned somewhere in the neighborhood of one hundred girls to court. According to the testimony, it seems that girls on their way home, from the Newton factories, would form lines across the highway and clasp hands, halt oncoming traffic. All cars thus stopped were promptly boarded by the gals, who demanded transportation to the trolley terminal...

Judge Sarsfield Cuniff relieved himself of a few words that were worded as follows, "I would have said, 'You're a good girl,' but I was afraid you'd be too shy to hear it."

Of this seven thousand, better than forty-five hundred left from City Hall as their induction point. A MESSAGE FROM YOUR NEWTON CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

By Charles R. Cabot

Chairman of the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross

Nearly seven thousand of our men and women (boys and girls some of them) are serving with our Armed Forces. [Their service has called them to distant places, to experiences undreamed of, to hardships and changes beyond the understanding of many of us who served in 1917 and '18.]

On January third, the All Newton Music School began a month's drive to encourage extra War Bond and Saving Stamp purchases in a special effort to help the Fourth War Loan and to win the war. The goal set was $1780, purchase price of a field ambulance for the armed forces. Credit for the sales thus promoted have been given to the Music School, and it is a great pleasure to report that at the half-way point on January 15th, the drive went over the top with a total of $1785.65. It has been decided to continue as planned through January 31st, in an effort to secure additional sales for at least one more ambulance.

The drive is sponsored by the Board of Trustees of the All Newton Music School of which Mrs. Ray A. Eusden of Newton is president. Other members of the board devoting much time to this effort are Mrs. George N. Abbott, chairman of volunteers for sales; Mrs. George H. Fernald, clerk; Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, chairman of the Woman's Division of the War Finance Committee of Newton, and Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, chairman of publicity and public relations.

The All Newton Music School, which is a member-agency of the Newton Community Chest, takes this opportunity of thanking the many kind friends who have sent in credits for bonds and stamps through this appeal.

A very unusual buy in an extra large size living-room rug. This Oriental Rug measures 11.6x18.6. It was woven in Yazd, an ancient city in Persia inhabited by the Parsees, the sun-worshippers. It is woven with the best local wools and vegetable dyes.

It is a rug in which deep rose and dark blue predominate, with a generous amount of light blue, cream, jade green and tan.

This rug should sell for over $1200.00. But as it is not an easy size to sell quickly, I will sacrifice it for $775.00.

The rug can be seen in my shop all this coming week.

DR. ROBINSON BACK FROM JAP PRISON CAMP TELLS OF EXPERIENCES

In the shadow of the imperialistic power of Nippon, Americans, British and other nationals applied democratic principles to the operation of the Santo Tomas internment camp at Manila, according to Dr. Hugh L. Robinson of Auburndale, medical missionary who recently returned on the Gripsholm.

Dr. Robinson revealed that the Japs allowed the camp only 35 cents a day for each person's subsistence. There were 4,000 internees at the camp and only an average of 30 square feet of living space for each person.

The experiences of Dr. Robinson as an internee at the camp were related by him at two meetings held in Newton this week by civic organizations.

Dr. Robinson and his wife and four children now reside on 600 Main st., Auburndale.

ENFORCE NO COASTING ORDINANCE IN NEWTON

Calling attention to a city ordinance that prohibits coasting on any street in the city, Chief of Police Michael T. Hughes, recently issued an order directing members of the force to prevent children from coasting on public thoroughfares.

Many complaints have been received of widespread violation of the regulation. In view of the fact that there are no streets closed and set aside for coasting in Newton, the police activity is being carried on for the safety of the children.

The ordinance was passed several years ago by the Board of Aldermen after the public had been roused by several fatal accidents in which child coasters were victims of automobiles.

She was graduated from Newton High School and the Newton Hospital Nurses' School. She also attended the Pine Manor School. After serving at the Newton Hospital for three years, she enlisted in the Army Nurses' Corps on March 2, 1942.

The broke out in the dining room of the living room of the home of Mrs. E. O'Brien, 55 Mossfield st., Waban. Martin Wilhelm of Milton, a paper hanger who was working in the house, assisted Mrs. O'Brien in carrying the drape into the yard and was burned.

When firemen arrived with Engine 6 they extinguished the blaze in the yard.

Firemen were called to put out a slight blaze at the home of Dr. Charles W. McClure, 52 Winthrop st., West Newton. They returned to the fire station at 7:14 a. m.

Two families were aroused at 3:55 a. m. when a fire broke out near the heater in the cellar at 144 East Boulevard rd., Newton Centre. The fire was discovered by a tenant, Henry O. Bennett, who called the fire department.

LIEUTENANT BRODNEY TO PAINT MEMORIALS

First Lt. Edward Brodney, Newton artist who painted the mural in memory of Chaplain William J. Carroll in the War Memorial building, as well as World War I memorial murals in the State House, hopes to portray on canvas "the courage, fighting spirit and patriotism" of American forces in the present conflict.

From the South Pacific, where he has been serving for two years, Lt. Brodney wrote of his hopes to Soldier's Relief Commissioner Edmund T. Dungan.

"When I painted the War Memorials at the State House and the Newton City Hall I was forced to piece together the feeling that I was trying to memorialize from stories the veterans gave me plus history books and Army manuals. Most of the veterans felt that I told the story well and they all seemed pleased with the results. With God willing, when this war is over, I hope to be able to paint other memorials, not the way I think it is but the way I know it. The courage, fighting spirit and patriotism of our generation will for all time be an inspiration to those who are to come."

COMPLETES FIFTEEN MONTH IN AIR FORCE

AN EIGHTH AAF BOMBER COMMAND STATION, England, Jan. 8. Staff Sgt. Charles R. Gallagher, 22, whose home is at 8 Murray ter., West Newton, is now looking backward on 15 months of service in the Air Forces from the ton gun turret on an Eighth Air Force Flying Fortress.

Gallagher recalls that he used to think he knew quite a bit about planes in the old days before September, 1942, when he worked as a welder and sheet metal worker, helping to build the Corsairs the Navy is using against the Zeros in the Pacific. He worked for the Vought-Sikorsky Corporation in Stratford, Conn., but finally got fed up with making planes and decided to fly in one.

As a Flying Fortress engineer, Gallagher now knows considerably more about planes than he did, and doesn't consider it disloyal to his old firm when he remarks that the P-38 is a real fighter, and the Thunderbolt isn't to be sneezed at, either. Combat crewmen in the European Theatre of Operations are singularly unanimous on these two points.

Sgt. Gallagher's mother, Mrs. Winifred K. Gallagher, lives in West Newton.

PREDICT BOOM YEAR

Another boom year with rising living costs, but no inflation was predicted for 1944 by President Herbert N. McGill at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club last Monday at the Brook Run Country Club, West Newton.

Mr. McGill, president of the McGill Community Company of Auburndale, which compiles statistics for industrial firms throughout the country, gave his annual talk on "The Outlook for the Coming Year."

SPORTS . . . in a Nutshell

Toronto not only gave the Bruins a terrible beating defeating them 12 to 3 but were the indirect cause of injuring Cowley the leading scorer in the league. Bill will be out a month as a result of a separation of his right shoulder just when he was well on his way to obtaining 100 points something which has never been done and probably never will be now.

The revamped Bruins defeated the Rangers 7-5 Cain scoring twice giving him a total of 49 points. Pat Egan started off all right getting an assist and stopping many ambitious Rangers from scoring. The Kid line showed up very good and maybe the Bruins can come through without Cowley.

Flash Hallet tied up the game for Detroit by scoring a goal in the third period in the game between Detroit and Canadiens. That's the way to do it Flash.

Toronto plays in Boston Tuesday night and you may be sure the Bruins will give them everything they have even with Crawford and Cowley out. Hang on Bruins, Jimmy Crawford will be back in a few days to help relieve the pressure, keep right up there so we can make the playoffs and win the cup.

Cowley's record for 26 games and the teams he scored on:

	Home	Away	Total
Bruins	16	4	20
Pangars	1	6	7
Toronto	6	1	7
Detroit	3	2	5
Chicago	1	2	3
Montreal	1	3	4
Totals	12	15	27

NEWTON OPENS TRACK SEASON WITH MALDEN

Lacking the services of three men who accounted for over 20 points in the State Meet, the championship Newton High School track team opened its indoor season with a dual meet at Malden High School.

Coach Charles R. Considine has been forced to find replacements for Gordon Thomas, Philip Walsh and Harry Greenwood, last year's stars who collected most of Newton's points in the State tourney. Outdoor title holders who competed are Capt. Ross Humphrey, winner of the 1,000 yard run, in the 600; and George Shepherd, 220-yard champ, in the 300-yard run. James Young, winner of the cross-country title last Fall, ran in the 1,000-yard race. Other veterans on the squad are Bob Morrell, in the hurdles and shot put; Guy Cogswell and John Harmon in the high jump; Bob Wilson and Dick Cotton, 600.

Bob Garrity, Phil Bolster and Dick Bourne were unable to compete. Promising Sophomores include James Rich, Alfred D'Angelis and Paul Angus. Others on the squad are George Cahill, David Kenney, Paul Irobino, Paul Young, Arthur Hayward and Jack Morrissey.

Assisting Considine on the coaching staff are Ed Boyle and Carl Gallagher.

The indoor track slate is as follows:

Jan. 14—At Malden.
Jan. 20—Malden.
Jan. 29—Northeastern Tourney at Northeastern.
Feb. 3—Rindge.
Feb. 13—State meet at the Boston Garden.
Feb. 17—At Brookline.

ALAN GEE WINS "Y" BROAD JUMP

Alan Gee placed first in Class A in the standing broad jump, the first event in the annual 1,000 point athletic contests at the Newton Y. M. C. A. C. Wade Abbot, associate physical director, was in charge of the contest.

David Rice led Class B with a distance of 5 feet, 7 inches, for 18 points. Other leaders in Class A were as follows:

John McAdams, second, 6 ft. 8 in., 58 points; Donald Henriques, third, 6 ft. 7 in., 56 points; Charles R. Eagan and William Aufinger, tied for fourth, 6 ft. 5 in., 52 points.

ENGINE 1 MEN STOP COUPE FIRE

Newton firemen attached to Engine 1 were called to put out a blaze in a coupe at the corner of Centre and Hall sts., Newton, at 5:30 p. m.

The car is owned by Constance Manning of 283 Walnut st., Wellesley, and was operated by Alice Manning of the same address. The blaze was caused either by an overflow of alcohol in the cooling system or by a short circuit, according to officials.

The Fire Department was called at 10 p. m. recently when smoke from the fireplace filled the house at 68 Ferncroft rd., Waban.

The aggregate value of building permits undertaken in Newton last year was less than half that of the preceding year, according to the annual report of the Public Buildings Department.

In the year 1943 a total of 338 permits were issued for projects having an aggregate estimated cost of $237,619, compared with 404 permits and an estimated cost of $524,384 in 1942 and 993 permits and an estimated cost of $2,394,589 in 19

Give 12 Percent Bonus To Some School Employees

At the meeting of the Newton School Committee on Monday evening a 12 per cent bonus was granted to regular and part-time employees of the school cafeterias.

The cafeterias, which are operated under the direction of the school committee, are not a city enterprise. An estimated sum of $2600 required for payment of the bonus will be taken from the surplus profit fund which at present amounts to about $11,000.

A military leave of absence was granted by the committee to Leo J. Barry, teacher of English at Newton High School, who is serving as a lieutenant, junior grade, in the Navy. His wife, Mrs. Mary D. Barry, also a teacher of English at the high school, was appointed in his place for the duration. Mrs. Barry is a graduate of Radcliffe College and before her marriage was head of the English Department of the Reading High School.

The resignation of Mrs. Nathalie Crowell, a teacher in the Williams School, Auburndale, was accepted by the committee, effective Feb. 16.

Miss Annie C. Pottle, principal of the Underwood School and the Lincoln-Eliot School, was at her own request relieved of her duties as principal of the Lincoln-Eliot School but will retain the position of principal of the Underwood School.

G. Winthrop Brainerd, principal of the Stearns and Horace Mann Schools, was made principal of the Lincoln-Eliot School. He will retain the position of principal of the Stearns School. Kenneth LaFlamme will become principal of the Horace Mann School and will also retain his position as principal of the Carr School. Charles Raymond Cabot, new chairman of the school committee, presided at the meeting.

To Issue Annual Report Shortly

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Family Service Bureau it was announced that the Annual Report would be issued shortly. Considerable time was spent in discussing ways and means for making the work of the bureau better known in all sections of the city. A surprisingly large number of public-spirited men and women have stated from time to time that they would like to give the bureau more publicity in their own neighborhood, but they sometimes hesitated for fear that detailed, technical questions might be asked them. The directors have been planning to organize a speakers' bureau composed of especially trained men and women who will know all the answers. Miss Parsons, in the course of her regular monthly report, made the point that the bureau is in a position to open up a vast field of resources which otherwise would not be available to clients. This includes members of the medical profession, hospitals, clinics, vocational guidance bureaus, etc. She mentioned, also, one of the less-known services rendered, namely, that of assisting in settling estates for elderly people who do not know where to turn for guidance.

There was a brief discussion of the merit of changing the title "case-workers" to something less technical and more human.

NEWTON RED CROSS TO START NEW CLASS FOR NURSES' AIDES

There are still openings for registration in the new class for Nurses' Aides starting Monday, February 7th, at the Newton Hospital, announces Mrs. Robert W. Moore, chairman of Nurses' Aides for the Newton Red Cross. This will be the fifteenth Nurses' Aide training course to be offered by the Newton Red Cross, which already has trained 235 Aides.

Besides their valuable work at the Newton Hospital where they are helping to fill the gap made by 70 registered nurses who have left to serve with the armed forces, Newton Nurses' Aides are working at the Peabody Home for Crippled Children, the Wellesley Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital, and with the Public Health Nursing Service.

With all these obligations to fill, more Nurses' Aides are needed and it is hoped that many Newton women will volunteer for this vital war-time work. All those interested in joining the class starting February 7th are urged to call the Newton Red Cross, Lasell 6000, and ask for the Nurses' Aide office to arrange for a personal interview.

TO SPEAK ON MASSACHUSETTS

Fine Response To Appeal For Funds

Thomas V. Cleveland, Chairman of the Infantile Paralysis drive for the City of Newton, reports that the people of Newton are responding well to the appeal for funds to fight Infantile Paralysis. The coin boxes placed near the cash registers in practically all stores and public buildings in the city are fast becoming filled with coins. The schools, public, parochial, and private, have entered into the campaign with enthusiasm, and although Wednesday, Jan. 26th, was set aside as The Day, the schools in some instances have asked for more time in order to be sure all have an opportunity to contribute.

Mr. Cleveland points out that when the people of Newton become conscious of the fact that the money they contribute to this fund is used not only for research work to isolate and find a cure for this disease by the National Foundation, but that one-half of the funds remains right here in the county, and that these funds are available to the citizens of Newton in the event they become afflicted with this dread disease and are unable to get proper treatment, then more will wish to have a part in this worthy cause.

The following arranged for the distribution of the coin boxes and posters to the schools of the city: Mr. John J. Cahill, Parochial Schools, Mrs. Leo F. Baldwin, Mrs. Donald Gibbs, Mrs. Elmer Pillsbury, and Mrs. Richard Cole, Public and Private Schools.

OUR BRITISH ALLY

On Wednesday, Feb. 2, at 10:30 in the Community Playhouse, Wellesley Hills, Miss Avery will analyze our British ally.

As she herself says, "It does not matter whether you like Britain or dislike Britain," but it is of great importance to understand our past ties and so be able to judge our future affiliations.

Anyone who has read Walter Lippmann's United States Foreign Policy will readily grasp the fact that our past security has been anchored to the British Navy, whether we knew it or not, and so be prepared for the promise of World Security based on the partnership of the United Nations and their navies.

26 Gold Stars On High School Service Flag

A service flag with 26 gold stars and 1003 blue stars was unveiled at Newton High School on Wednesday morning, Jan. 19, before 2500 pupils and teachers.

Principal Raymond A. Green, the first speaker of the memorial assembly, said: "This is a significant event in the history of our school. We are here today to pay honor and tribute to the teachers and to the young men and women of this school who have gone into 'the services of our country to fight for us.'"

After the pledge of allegiance to the flag and the national anthem, Howard Abbott, President of the Associates, presented the flag. "We have reached that point of the war when we can look back as well as look forward to its termination. Let us resolve," he continued, "that our country in the future will find that we are doing our utmost to uphold the democratic principles for which we fight." He called attention to the more than 1100 persons represented by the flag, a number that will be much larger as soon as the school's war records are completed; and he urged all his hearers to ask themselves daily this question: Have I done all that I possibly can to prosecute this war to a successful victory and to perpetuate a lasting peace?

Ruth Conant recited "A Soldier Sneaks." Millard Harmon told of Alan Seeger, the poet, who in the fall of 1917 wrote "If I Have a Rendezvous with Death." The poet knew then there was to be an Allied drive in the spring. Having explained its present significance, when preparations are being made for an Allied drive on the Western Front, Harmon read "The Poet."

While the audience stood at attention, George Dummer, President of the Civics Board, read the names and classes of 26 alumni who have lost their lives in the war. After taps, the school returned quietly to the work of the day.

Mrs. John L. MacNeil, chairman of the Information Service Committee and responsible for the completion of this project, says: "We hope this Directory will fill the long unmet need of listing, in one volume, all Community resources. Because this is the first venture of its kind undertaken by the Council or any local group, we know it is not absolutely correct and we urge you to call the Council of office, LAS 5121, regarding any corrections or omissions. If this Directory proves of value to residents of Newton it will be issued annually. This Directory is published for you—we will appreciate your suggestions for future editions."

The "Directory of Newton Agencies, Clubs and Organizations" lists names, location and persons in charge of Newton Community Chest Member agencies; departments of the city government; public and private schools; Newton churches and affiliated groups; Federated Women's Clubs and Associate members; War Services Committees and miscellaneous groups of civic, service and recreational nature.

PLAY SQUARE... DO YOUR SHARE

Do you remember that soldier you saw on the bus with his arm in a cast? Do you recall that sailor you saw hobbling down the street on a cane? Have you noticed the list of casualties printed from time to time in this newspaper? What you are asked to do, compared to the boys who are really in it, is easy. But your job is mighty important, too. Once again you are asked to BUY AT LEAST ONE EXTRA HUNDRED DOLLAR WAR BOND. A Series E War Savings Bond will cost you only $75 and you get back at maturity in ten years $4 for every $3 invested; this is the least you can do. Invest more if you possibly can—$200, $300, $400. Remember, it all comes back with interest. So play square—do your share. HE DID!

Pin-up picture for the man who "can't afford" to buy an extra war bond...

YOU'VE HEARD people say: "I can't afford to buy an extra War Bond." Perhaps you've said it yourself... without realizing what a ridiculous thing it is to say to men who are dying.

Yet it is ridiculous, when you think about it. Because today, with national income at an all-time record high... with people making more money than ever before... with less and less of things to spend money for... practically every one of us has extra dollars in his pocket.

The very least that you can do is to buy an extra $100 War Bond... above and beyond the Bonds you are now buying or had planned to buy. In fact, if you take stock of your resources and check your expenditures, you will probably find that you can buy an extra $200... or $300... or even $500 worth of War Bonds.

Sounds like more than you "can afford"? Well, young soldiers can't afford to die, either... yet they do it when called upon. So is it too much to ask of us that we invest more of our money in War Bonds... the best investment in the world today? Is that too much to ask?

Kiwanis Activities

KIWANIS CLUB

Mayor Paul M. Goddard of Newton spoke to the Kiwanis Club at the regular meeting last Tuesday noon. The Mayor was introduced by Jack Janse of the local club. He began his address by thanking Kiwanis for the various ways in which it has served the city of Newton through various projects, most particularly the servicemen who are being sent copies of "What's Cookin' in Newton," which is made possible by Rotary and Kiwanis. The Mayor spoke about the coordinating committee which is working to provide help in readjustment to returning servicemen. He also urged that Kiwanis continue to co-operate by purchasing war bonds and supporting the March of Dimes. Having just returned from the Mayors' Convention in Chicago, Mayor Goddard mentioned some of the considerations which were raised there. Several speakers at the convention, he said, warned against over optimism in connection with the war. The fact that the United States has not yet reached its peak on war production was brought out. He spoke about an address given by Paul McNutt, in which McNutt emphasized the fact that equal pressure must be applied to everyone in connection with the war. A return to strong state and local government after the war was also emphasized as was the necessity for intelligent post war planning. Mayor Goddard said that it is very likely that we will have more problems following the war than we have now during the war, but he placed himself on record as being optimistic about the ability of the American people to find satisfactory solutions.

President George Van Buskirk presided at the meeting and three guests were introduced: John Haughey, Street Commissioner of the City of Newton, Bill Wray, treasurer of the Newton Centre Savings Bank, and Clayton Luckenbach of Winchester, Letters were read by Ben Louis from boys in the service who have received a copy of "What's Cookin' in Newton." Letters have come from Brazil, Pearl Harbor, Iran, India, the Aleutians and from the sea with the fleet. A directors' meeting was announced for next Monday evening. Announcement was also made that the penny sale will be postponed until March. February 29 has been designated as Blood Donors' Day for the Fifth Division, which will be sponsored by the Newton Club. Doc Hammersten was congratulated upon his birthday. Next week's speaker will be Dr. Alexander S. Robertson, Health Officer of the Newton Board of Health.

Lions Club

Thomas V. Cleveland was the speaker at the last meeting of the Newton Lions Club. Confining his talk mainly to an ardent appeal for contributions to the Infantile Paralysis Fund or the so-called "March of Dimes," in which everyone is interested, he told of the nonpolitical set-up of the Fund and of the enormous good which is being accomplished through the Foundation. Mr. Cleveland was asked questions on real estate problems and his commentaries were much appreciated. At the conclusion of the meeting President David Buxbaum was presented with a gift by the members of the club for him to take home to a future member of the Lions. Robert David Buxbaum.

A directors' meeting completed the evening's activities.

JUST THINK

This past summer America experienced its worst epidemic of infantile paralysis in many years

Think — of our tremendous war production and of how infantile paralysis, had it not been countered, might have sabotaged that war production.

Think — how your dimes and dollars contributed to the Annual Appeal of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis helped check the epidemic threat to our vital war effort.

Think — how the greatest minds and skills in medicine coped with the epidemic; how supplies, hospital equipment, respirators, apparatus of all kinds were rushed to stricken areas so that all victims, rich or poor, regardless of age, race, creed or color could have adequate hospital and medical care.

Think — again of the magnificent job your dimes and dollars have done in fighting this disease this past summer.

Think — what 1944 may bring... we do not know. But we do know that we need your help to win this battle. This is your fight—a fight for all of the human benefits symbolized in the Stars and Stripes. Then—

POLITICS WITH COLOR

By P. W. C.

Tenacious Tinkham

Several weeks ago I heard a rumor concerning the politically-late George Holden Tinkham, who served many, many terms in Congress from the old Eleventh Congressional district. It was hinted that the bearded, lion-hunting statesman might attempt a comeback at the expense of the present incumbent, Hon. Christian A. Herter of Boston and Mills. The weird part of this rumor was that Tinkham might go after the Democratic nomination, despite his life-long career as a Republican. To be sure, Tinkham was always independent and utterly unpredictable. I doubt if he ever gave much aid and comfort to the regular party organization. Nevertheless, it now comes as a bit of a shock to read in the Boston papers that the eccentric lion-hunter is seriously considering abandoning his party and taking a crack at the Democratic nomination next fall in our new Ninth district.

Here is the set-up as I see it. Bill Carey of the Boston City Council, who threw such a scare into the Herter camp in the fall of 1942, when he came within less than 3,000 votes of defeating him, will probably run again in the Democratic primary. State Senator Maurice Goldman, a sturdy campaigner who wants to climb higher. These two gentlemen will divide up two large fractions of the Democratic vote and the astute Mr. Tinkham will garner the balance of it. Democrats have always liked Tinkham, because he did just as they favor, big and little, for them as he did for members of the G. O. P. In fact, Tinkham was the only Republican who could ever have been re-elected after time from the old Eleventh district.

Now, assuming that Tinkham can grab the Democratic nomination, what happens then? This new Ninth district does not appear to be so solidly Republican as it was planned to be when re-districting went into effect. Tinkham would undoubtedly get quite a few Republican votes on election day and he would most certainly get a good many independent votes. Needless to say, the Democrats would prefer Tinkham, who has always befriended them, to Chris Herter, a staunch Republican who has never wandered off the reservation. All in all, it appears, at the moment, that Congressman Herter might have his hands full if Tinkham carries out his threat.

Turn, now, to the other side of the picture. Tinkham was backed out of the 1942 contest by those who assured him that his highly-unpopular record as a bitter isolationist would ruin his chances and that he might just as well retire gracefully instead of being thrown out of office after a lengthy and reasonably successful career. Rumor has it, also, that it was suggested to him that he would have to spend considerable coin of the realm if he tried to retain his seat. The gentleman is, of course, extremely well-to-do and he could probably have spared the money. However, it looked like a bad gamble and he quit cold, letting Herter have the field to himself, save for minor opposition. It turned him up to see how close Carey came to taking Herter into camp. The crucial point today is the political strength, or weakness, of the isolationist group in Massachusetts. If it is anything like the situation in the Ham Fish district in New York state, it is conceivable that Tinkham might make considerable headway against our sitting Congressman. If, on the other hand, the typical Willkieites and all the other interventionists get behind Chris Herter, it is quite possible that the gent with the beard will wish he had minded his business and let well enough alone. Personally, I have never understood why the Republican party let Tinkham have his own way as it did. I am of the opinion that the G. O. P. big-wigs figured that it was better to have him down in Washington than it would be to have a regular Democrat. That appeared to be the alternative.

Finally, a great deal depends on the course of the war during the next few months. If the European phase of it is in sight, the shape and the course is in sight, the former Congressman will have a slightly better chance to get somewhere. If, on the other hand, the war is going badly and casualties are growing ever heavier, it seems to me that an out-and-out isolationist like Tinkham can be suppressed relatively easily.

Republican Delegates

Although no official announcement has yet been made, a prominent newspaper has intimated that quite a few delegates all over the state have already been asked to run or have decided to run "on their own." In our district, it seems likely that Carroll L. Means of Boston, chairman of the Department of Public Utilities and former chairman of the Republican State Committee and former Rep. Philip G. Bowker of Brookline, currently serving as one of the Metropolitan District Commissioners, will be the two delegates. If that set-up seems to leave Newton out of the picture, my readers are reminded that we may confidently expect to have the Governor and former Mayor Sinclair Weeks on the delegate-at-large slate.

Large Number Attend Opening Of Canteen

With Mrs. Lyman P. Gutterson, 39 Lock rd., Waban, as co-chairman of senior hostesses, Boston Stage Door Canteen of the American Theatre Wing War Service, Inc., reopened at its star-spangled and more spacious new headquarters in the Boston Young Men's Christian Union, 48 Boylston st., Boston, Thursday evening, Jan. 20. Russell E. Offhaus radio announcer, 44 Harvard st., Newtonville, was master of ceremonies.

Many Newton people have been actively associated with the Boston Stage Door Canteen since its original opening last September. Priscilla Fortescue 82 Day st., Auburndale, is co-chairman of the angel table. John J. Del Monte, 678 Boylston st., Newton Centre, is co-chairman of doormen, and as president of the Boston Central Labor Union has secured the co-operation of bakery, laundry drivers' and other unions in securing supplies to carry on the work of the canteen.

Florence E. Whittier (Mrs. Wm. L. Tisdal in private life), 6 Rowe st., Auburndale, is co-chairman of publicity.

Open every evening from six until midnight for service men and on Sundays from 7:30 to midnight, with hospitality including refreshments, entertainment and dancing with junior hostesses, the Boston Stage Door Canteen, patterned on the original New York Stage Door Canteen of movie fame, is the seventh in the chain of stage door canteens scattered over the country from coast to coast. Brock Pemberton, well-known theatrical producer, and co-chairman of all seven stage door canteens for the American Theatre Wing War Service, Inc., was present for the Boston reopening. It is estimated that $100,000 worth of talent from stage, radio, night club and hotel shows current in Boston appeared on this star-spangled program, directed by Edward G. Richardson, WHDH staff announcer, entertainment committee co-chairman.

The new Boston Stage Door Canteen is located in Ainsley Hall of the B. Y. M. C. Union through the courtesy of the trustees. Redecorated under the scenic direction of Nat Karson of Radio City Music Hall, scenic designer, it has a blue ceiling emblazoned with white stars and with red and white striped walls against a blue background. Hundreds of service men are flocking in nightly to pass a few hours while on leave in Boston.

Rotary Club

Robert Ayers, a member of the State Parole Board, was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club held at the Blue Bird Country Club on Monday.

Mr. Ayers, who was introduced by Philip Enholm of the program committee, spoke on "The Duties of the Parole Board of Massachusetts," giving a sketch of the penal system in Massachusetts, from security training schools for delinquent children through the reformatory and prisons.

He outlined the great power of the Parole Board which can release from confinement anyone who has served two-thirds of the minimum sentence imposed. He said that it was unfortunate that no publicity is given to the 85 per cent of parolees who are completely rehabilitated and are re-arrested in any difficulty with the law. He said that 15 per cent, which represents those who violate their parole, will not be less useful to communities make provisions to help released persons to adjust themselves to society.

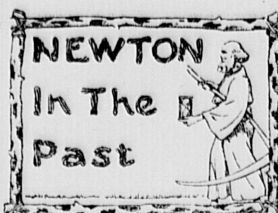

The fact that the armed services are now accepting a limited number of persons paroled by the boards is a victory for the system, according to Mr. Ayers. He said that of the 300 Massachusetts parolees in the Merchant Marine, only one has violated parole.

Rev. Richard P. McClintock and Eugene Campbell, former members of the club, were welcomed back by Vice-President Orville Clapper, who presided in the absence of President Herbert N. McGill.

The Howard Ice Company completed filling their ice-houses at Watertown, Tuesday. The time of harvest was about a week, the capacity of the houses being 5000 tons. The ice averaged 12 inches in thickness and is the best quality ever cut from the pond. A second crop will be harvested if possible, and a large stack built. This ice is used for wholesale trade only, and the family trade will be supplied with ice from the country the coming summer.

There has been some fine skating on Bullough's Pond, Newtonville, this week. Hundreds of ladies and gentlemen have taken advantage of the fine conditions presented for skating and the sport has been hugely enjoyed.

The Newton Rubber Works Co. has engaged a number of new employees on account of the increase in business.

One of the largest land transfers in this city for a long time has been consummated in the sale of 500,000 square feet, situated on Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre (Central boulevard). The purchaser is a well-known syndicate, represented by A. D. S. Bell, who is one of the leaders in the boulevard property.

The next and last Liberty Loan will come in the spring, probably in April, it has already been named the VICTORIOUS FIFTH. This tells its purpose in three words. It will have a strong appeal to the 30,000,000 patriotic men and women who hold today the bonds of four other loans.

HOME NURSING COMMITTEE PLANS PROGRAM

At a meeting of the Newton Red Cross Home Nursing Committee on January 25th the new program for increased interest in home nursing throughout the community was discussed. Miss Gertrude Landmesser, Red Cross Nursing Consultant of the North Atlantic Area, addressed the committee, and informed them that the cooperation of the Newton schools, has been secured, and that literature on Home Nursing will be distributed to the students for their parents. Miss Landmesser also informed the committee that those who have been trained in Home Nursing may volunteer their help in cases of emergency, and they may offer their services in homes under the supervision of the doctor in charge. Members of the Newton Red Cross Home Nursing Committee who attended the meeting are: Mrs. R. B. Webster, chairman, Mrs. Chester Boynton, Mrs. Alden Speare, Mrs. Kristian Juthe, Mrs. Charles J. A. Wilson, Mrs. Charles P. Woolworth, Mrs. H. E. Burroughs and Mrs. Stanley Newman.

The importance of home nursing, training particularly now when so many trained nurses and doctors have left the community for service with the armed forces. The danger of epidemics is greater during wartime and with fewer nurses and doctors available to civilians, one member of every household should be trained in home nursing. Newton's quota for 1944 is 700 new Home Nursing certificates. Members of the most recent Home Nursing class at the Newton Red Cross reported that their training was most useful to them during the mild flu epidemic, then they were able to care for their families more efficiently and carry out doctors' orders with ease. Members of this class who received Home Nursing certificates at the Newton Red Cross are: Mrs. Theresa Arnold, Mrs. Mary Barry, Miss Liberty Bilezikian, Mrs. Dorthea Callanan, Mrs. Arthur Clarke, Mrs. Mary Duffy, Mrs. Ida Howell, Mrs. Rosanne Haskins, Mrs. Ada Jones, Mrs. Ruth King, Mrs. Joan Monahan, Mrs. Muriel Paine, Mrs. Catherine Quinn, Mrs. Alfred Smith, Mrs. Marie Sullivan, Mrs. Verna Taverner, and Mrs. Mary Walsh.

THE FARMER vs. OLD MAN WINTER

It's 5 a. m. of a snowy, bitter cold winter morning. Common or garden variety civilians like you and me are still asleep; and when we waken later to the prospect of ear chains and galoshes, we'll think we have it tough.

At 5 a. m., the milk farmer is shoveling a path to the barn by the light of a lantern. Huge drifts have blown against the barn doors; he must shovel those, too. The cows must be milked and fed. And getting the milk to the pasteurization plant (and then to you) presents still more problems. Roads are choked with snow; even car chains prove ineffectual. Bus service is crippled. Trains run late. But the milk always gets there.

Hard enough in normal times, the milk farmer's job today is doubly hard. Overworked and underpaid, he's waging a one-man war against two tough adversaries: Old Man Winter and wartime help shortages. If he can fight that battle and win, surely we can help by sharing fairly the milk he is able to produce.

IS RE-ELECTED EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

Rev. Earl W. Douglas, M.A., of 11 Fairview st., was re-elected executive secretary of the City Missionary Society at its 127th annual meeting held in the Congregational Church, and Frank V. N. Dana, of 105 Oakdale rd., Newton Highlands, was elected assistant treasurer. Mrs. John A. Campbell and Ellison Day were appointed members of the board of managers.

NEWTON FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

A meeting of the Executive Board of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs was held at the headquarters of the All Newton Music School in the Clafin School, Newtonville, on Monday morning, January 24th. The president, Mrs. Alden H. Speare called the meeting to order at ten-fifteen and gave a friendly and cordial greeting to those present on this the first meeting of the new year.

After reading of the minutes it was voted to omit the February meeting making the next meeting to be held coming on Monday, March 27th. The following announcements of coming events were made: Mid Year Meeting of the Federation on Thursday, Feb. 10th, at the Underwood School, Newton, with the Newton Community Club acting as hostess; Program Conference on Thursday, March 2nd, at the Work Shop in Newton Highlands, the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands, hostess; School of Public Affairs on Monday, March 13th and the Annual Sale for the Blind on Tuesday and Wednesday April 25 and 26 both at the Newton Centre Women's Club.

Much interest and enthusiasm was shown over the War Bond Drive which has been set up by the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs. This is a special campaign during the Fourth War Loan drive with the goal of at least one Field Ambulance for every Woman's Club in Newton. Several clubs reported as being over the top or well on the way to achieve the goal.

Interesting reports were given by committee chairmen as well as by delegate from associate members.

Dr. Homer Anderson, superintendent of the Newton Public Schools spoke to the group on "The Philosophy of Education" pointing out that the whole growth of the child must embrace the physical, mental and social development leading to raising of the cultural level of the individual. He said that to this end individuals must be given what they need in order to make for adequate growth and in so doing the tremendous differences inherent in individuals must be taken into account so that every child may be given those advantages as an individual according to his aptitudes—according to his possibilities. Dr. Anderson spoke of "teaching" as the most thrilling of all the professions and said that teachers must be better prepared for their jobs because schools and teachers have the real responsibility of imbuing youth with a good philosophy of life, leading them into good American citizenship, with the power to think and to live together. After a brief question period, the meeting was adjourned at 11:15 a. m.

POSTMASTER LEADS EMPLOYEES TO BLOOD CENTER

Marking another year when employees of the Boston District will again top all records for blood contributions, Postmaster Patrick J. Connelly marched with hundreds of postal men and women to the Blood Donor Center.

Last year, according to actual Red Cross statistics, more pints of blood were given by the postal employees of the Boston District than from any other group.

Can't See Eyes Move

Try as hard as you may, you cannot by watching in a mirror see your own eyes move, according to the Better Vision Institute. You will know that they are moving from the feeling of the eye muscles in turning them, but you never can catch them in the act of turning about. Another person, however, can easily watch in the mirror your eyes in motion. From these and other facts some investigators have concluded that the eye does not see when moving about in its orbit—that it is stone blind for an instant while changing its focus.

Concrete Barge

The concrete barge is experimental and subject to controversy among the experts, but has performed well and fills a definite war need. A concrete barge uses two-thirds as much steel as a cargo ship, but of a lower grade and readily available. The barges have been slow in building, and are costly for tonnage delivered. This program has recently been curtailed. The same criticism applies to wooden barges. Both concrete barges and wooden barges are a very small part of the total program.

Chinese Color Symbolism

In China, red is the color of felicitation, the symbol of the South, of the element fire, of summer and the planet Mars. Yellow is the color of the Middle Kingdom, of the element earth, and the planet Saturn. Green is the color of the East, of the element wood, of spring and the planet Jupiter. White is the color of the West, of the element metal, of autumn and the planet Venus. Black is the color of the North, of the element water, of winter and the planet Mercury.

Keep Every Ounce

Keep every ounce of drippings from beef, pork, lamb, poultry, suet, bacon, sausage, ham, etc. Strain all drippings into their containers. Cover and keep in refrigerator. Render out extra suet, ham or bacon rinds, and fat from fowl. Save even the bits of table fat that cling to clean wrappings.

Replace Ship Losses

During the last war, replacements for shipping losses were effectively made by the Allies, particularly in the first and last years. Their original 38,300,000 tons was reduced by losses of 18,800,000 tons in four years, and yet in October, 1918, there were 42,500,000 tons of Allied and neutral shipping in operation or under repair.

Milk in a Cube

There's a chance you will buy a week's supply of fresh milk at the grocery store one of these days in a package of milk cubes. Now being experimented with, the cubes are dry, wrapped, and can be kept several weeks in a refrigerator. You'll simply drop a cube in a glass of water and have fresh, whole milk with no "condensed" taste.

Shipyard Turnover

There are more than 675,000 workers in the maritime shipyards. In the first quarter of 1943 there was an average of 11.2 per cent turnover each month, of which 2 per cent represents men inducted into the armed services. On the West coast, where approximately half of our shipping is built, one-seventh of the working force during every month are newcomers, needing to be trained or broken in to new conditions.

Food Waste

The Food Distribution Administration sets total food waste in this country at from 20 to 30 pounds of every 100 produced. Some of this waste occurs on the farm, in spoiled or unharvested crops. Some happens in transit from the farm to the market; some as food sits on grocers' shelves or in butchers' show cases.

Good to Keep

Flat strip or angle iron, and nuts and bolts that are easy to remove, are worth salvaging from any farm machine before the rest of it is turned in for scrap.

War Services In The Newtons

In March '43, a letter sent to all members of War Services in Newton gave an explanation of the meaning, organization, and purpose of the work which they were asked to undertake.

In December a meeting was held at the Public Safety Office to take stock of past achievements and to look to future responsibilities. At that time Mayor Paul Goddard, John Bierer, chairman Committee on Public Safety, Raymond Cabot, chairman Newton Chapter American Red Cross, John Haughey, Street Commissioner & Salvage chairman, and Frank Kennedy, Chief Air Raid Warden, spoke to the Village Chairmen of War Services.

L. SALVAGE

FATS—One of the most important and critically needed materials is waste fat because fat contains glycerine. Uses for glycerine are many—nitroglycerine which goes into explosives; paint to camouflage ships, planes and tanks; a base of the sulfa ointments that save countless lives; in smallpox vaccines; in salves for burn and wounds and for many other medicinal purposes.

PAPER—A critical shortage of paper has developed in the past few months. Newton is not conducting any city-wide campaign at present, and advance plans are difficult to announce. BUT if householders will place waste paper—tied up in bundles—beside their barrels on rubbish collection days, the city will see that it is baled and sent to the proper war industries for reclaiming.

TIN CANS—Tin cans are made of steel with a coating of tin. The tin is used to make bearings in airplane engines; for solder; for the medical syringes every soldier carries in his kit. Steel is needed for all machines of war.

II—ASSISTANCE TO RED CROSS

War services may help the Red Cross by actively recruiting local women to serve in one of the groups organized for special hospital needs.

GRAY LADIES & NURSES Aides—The lack of trained nurses for civilian medical care means that there is a tremendous need for volunteers in these fields.

MOTOR CORPS DRIVERS—New hospitals are opening in France and in Italy. For the wounded of this war, calling for much additional transportation.

BLOOD DONORS—Newton gives only a small portion of what it should to this greatest of all civilian contributions to the war effort. An appointment made with the Blood Donor Center, 485 Boylston st., Boston.

III. VOLUNTEER SERVICE This branch of War Services gives all types of clerical assistance to our Civil Control and local war agencies. It has done a tremendously important job.

IV. NUTRITION, GARDENING, PRESERVATION

Victory Garden production for 1943 was nothing short of startling. Home canning was equally so.

The N-G-P Committee will continue to serve for this year under the auspices of War Service. Call Mrs. D. Allen Smith, LAS 3359.

A Good Investment

In 1942 the Canadian National railways expended $683,000 to guard its vast properties from coast to coast against possible sabotage. On the National System's mileage basis, this protection, so essential to the lives of thousands of members of the armed forces and millions of dollars worth of war material in transit, cost the small amount of one and one-third cents per mile per hour.

Dry Moisture

If soft rot becomes severe at any time during the storage period, the storage house should be heated until the potatoes are dried out and the moisture disappears. After the potatoes have dried out, they should not be removed from storage, because potatoes should not be handled until you are ready to ship or sell them.

REBECCA POMROY HOUSE

Four leaders from the Rebecca Pomroy House of Newton accompanied their club members to the rally for 4-H clubs at Wakefield on Saturday.

Each group participated in the contests and came home with ribbons awards for second, third or fifth prizes.

Mrs. Elsa Frediani's club was in the song contest singing two songs, one of which they composed themselves.

Mrs. Marie Gilbert's club participated in the identification class and wore most becoming aprons and headbands to identify themselves as a group. The girls from Mrs. Walter Forbes' club entered the skit contest and showed ways of salvaging and conserving. The Dainty Chicks, whose leader is Miss Helen Sandstrom, took part in the demonstration contest and showed the way to prepare to mix muffins in order to save time and avoid waste. Miss Sylvia Frediani who works with her mother as club assistant also accompanied the party.

React Differently

Because of differences in milling processes, different soya flours will react differently when combined with liquids. Some will take up more liquid than others, and if a woman is using them in her own recipes, she will have to experiment at first to see how much the liquid measurement in her recipe must be changed.

The different milling processes are known as (a) the "expeller" method, in which the fat is expelled, giving a flour which tends to stick together; and (b) the "solvent extraction" method, which produces a drier, dustier type of flour. This drier flour will take up more liquid than flour of the expeller type.

Color Blindness Corrected

That color blindness is susceptible to correction is evidenced by recent studies involving the use of vitamins and eye training, reports the Better Vision Institute. In one group of 45 men rejected for military service because of inability to distinguish colors easily, after vitamins were added in substantial amounts to the diets of the men and their eyes given intensive training in color discrimination, 35 passed eye tests upon re-examination, and were accepted in various branches of the military services. After six months the eyes of 35 men were found to have retained improved color perception.

Best Marksmen Right-Eyed

Men with dominant right eyes are the best marksmen, it is said. Studies of nearly 2,000 military recruits showed that men with very strong right eyes made the best showing, and that the poorest shots were those whose left eyes were highly predominant. However, the poor showing of left-eyed men probably partly was the result of the fact that the rifles were designed for right-handed persons. Only 16 per cent of the right-handed men were left-eyed.

Processing Seal Skins

There are more than 100 distinct manipulations or treatments involved in the processing of fur-seal skins, each requiring great skill and care. This work is completed in about 60 days and results in the creation of a fine fur that is both exceedingly durable and of great beauty. For many years all sealskins were dyed black, but in recent years shades of brown have been developed. Two shades are now used; safari brown, a deep chocolate tone, and matara brown, which has a bluish background. A fur-seal coat contains an average of from six to eight skins.

Use Feathers

Feathers from chicken-dressing plants were formerly wasted or used as fertilizer. Now they are being preserved in a weak acid solution and will be used for sleeping bags, pillows, and for camouflage.

Smokeless Furnace

There's a new coal furnace now which burns even soft coal without smoke. And it saves up to a fourth on fuel. A down-draft forces unburned smoke through the glowing coals, where it's consumed, and only the smokeless gases that don't foul your line go up the chimney.

Votes Interest Rate of 5 Percent

The Newton Municipal Credit Union at their recent meeting voted as their contribution to the Fourth War Bond Drive a special interest rate of 5 per cent on loans made for the purchase of War Bonds.

Under this plan a loan of $100 which would cost a member $5 would purchase $133 worth War Bonds and would yield the purchaser approximately $3 per year during the lifetime of the loan. As all loans in the credit union are insured, the member would also have the benefit for one year of $100 insurance. Interest on loans may be deducted from Federal Income tax resulting in at least an annual saving of $1, thus making the total cost of the loan to a member less than $1 for the purchase of $133 of War Bonds.

The meeting was conducted by the president, Philip Purcell. The directors present were: Police Captain Nicholas Vedicchio, Miss Grace Haughey, Treasurer, Thomas P. Joyce, Deputy Fire Chief Francis J. Linnehan, Paul Mullen, Joseph A. Delaney, John Foley, Richard A. Murphy, John N. Mullen, William H. Fitzgerald, Lawrence Kerr and Albert J. Stuart.

Shipping Lagged

England had in 1913 more than 23,700,000 deadweight tons of shipping to less than one million for the United States. Their entire launchings during four years of World War I were about what American yards are now turning out in four months. The total number of American merchant ships never met the number required to carry American troops and supplies.

U. S. Throws Away Food

According to a survey of edible garbage made in 48 cities, ranging in population from 12,000 to two million, America is throwing away an average of three-fifths of a pound of food per day per person. Collections of garbage in the cities ranged from 552 pounds per capita per year down to 70 pounds, with a median figure of 235 pounds. The normal range ran from 177 to 333 pounds, or from one-half to nine-tenths pounds a day per person.

Flag of the Americas

The white flag symbolizing peace was adopted at the Seventh International Conference of the American States at Montevideo in 1933. It bears three purple crosses to signify the three caravels of Columbus. Behind the central cross is a bronze sun of the Incas, combining all of the native Indian races of the three Americas or the Western hemisphere.

Watering Boosts Yield

It has been shown that watering cows twice daily produces 57 per cent more milk than watering once a day. One hundred heavy laying hens will drink 10 tons of water in a year. A laying pullet has been observed dipping her beak in a pan of water 57 consecutive times for breakfast. And it takes 550 pounds of water to produce 100 pounds of pork.

Soybean in America

First mention of soybeans in American literature was made in 1804 by one James Mease, who wrote that "the soybean is adapted to Pennsylvania and should be cultivated." It was not until 1898, however, that the department of agriculture began the introduction of a large number of soybeans from Asiatic countries.

New City

A new city will be founded in the Brazilian jungle soon, according to a recent announcement of the office of the economic co-ordinator which is sponsoring a "March to the West." The city will be established on the Araguaya river, between Mato Grosso and Goyaz, in an area rich in gold and other minerals.

Better Base

Metal parts of farm machines should be painted with an implement paint, or one with a varnish base, which is preferable to one with an oil base, as it dries better and does not come off so readily on hands and clothes.

Pay Increases

The average pay envelope of the worker in industry in 1910 was $11.53 per week. By the end of 1942 it had risen to $42.49. This was an increase of approximately 250 per cent in the average weekly pay envelope during this generation.

Lightning Strikes Twice

Studies of certain electric power lines reveal that the average 50 miles of power line will be hit by lightning an average of 50 times a year, and each stroke will have a voltage of between 20 and 30 million volts.

Aviation's Start

Montgolfier soared aloft in his hot air balloon in 1783; the Dolphin, first of rigid airships, appeared in 1852; in 1903, Wilbur Wright flew at Kitty Hawk—and modern aviation was born.

Protein Fertilizer

Soya products are not substitutes for wheat flours and should not be used as such. They are a protein fertilizer which can also be used as an extender, to make certain foods, such as meat or eggs, go further.

Excellent Corn Substitutes

Barley, wheat, rye and oats all contain several per cent more protein than does corn, so all make excellent substitutes for corn in a mixed dairy ration.

Not all the victories are on our side; not all the losses are our enemy's. Here you see barrel upon barrel of good American food going up in smoke after a Jap strafing.

The boys cannot be replaced but the material can—that is, if all real Americans do their utmost in the war effort and buy War Bonds.

Make your dollars work for victory: Buy More War Bonds.

U. S. Treasury Department

Ships Named for Women

Two more Liberty ships have been named for women, according to the Maritime commission. The latest of these is the Marie M. Meloney, named for the well-known woman journalist and editor. The 57th ship named for a woman was christened the Mary Mapes Dodge for an author well remembered for her juvenile books.

Good Breakfast

In planning breakfasts for school children, take into consideration the lunch and dinner or supper that they are to have. Breakfast should provide its full share of energy foods and body-building foods, and of the "protective" foods that build resistance. "Start the day right with a good breakfast" is a rule worth remembering. A slim hurried breakfast is the prize recipe for inefficiency and a none-too-good disposition.

Enlarge Savings

According to the bureau of labor statistics, 65 per cent of the rise in money income of the middle income consumer has gone to enlarge his savings. The department of commerce states that 62 per cent of these middle income groups are saving in cash for post-war buying.

Soya Ancient Food

Ancient Chinese literature tells us that the soybean was highly valued as a food centuries before written records were kept. The first record of the plant goes back to 2638 B. C. when the Emperor Sheng Nung wrote a description of the plants of China.

Soybean Output Up

Since 1937, production of soybeans has increased from about 46 million bushels to an estimated 200 million in 1943. Just since 1941, production has about doubled, and 1944 goals call for a further increase in acreage.

Changing Economy

In 1910, only 1.2 per cent of all families had incomes of over $5,000 a year. Another 29.4 per cent had incomes in what might be called the middle area, from $1,000 to $5,000. This left 69.4 per cent of the families with incomes under $1,000.

Plastic Plywood Planos

Army field planos that require less than 37 pounds of metal are built chiefly of plastic plywood, painted olive drab. With a collapsible bench, the total weight is 393 pounds.

Treat All Birds

When treatments for lice or mites are made, all birds in the flock should be included. One or two left untreated will soon reinfest the entire flock.

Animal Totals

It is expected that the total number of grain-consuming animal units on farms on January 1, 1944, will be 5 to 10 per cent greater than at the beginning of 1943.

Prevent Bedsores

As a means of preventing bedsores, wash any part of the body that is under even fairly constant pressure at least twice daily with soap and water. Massage gently to stimulate circulation.

Mature Spuds Store Best

Immature potatoes do not store so well as mature potatoes because of a thinner skin which results in more rapid loss of water and hence in greater shrinkage.

Marines Guard Canal

Marine corps detachments at Balboa and Coco Solo, at the Pacific and Atlantic termini of the Panama canal, respectively, are guarding a project that shortens the water distance from San Francisco to New York by 7,873 miles.

Balanced Food

When eaten with butter and milk, sweet potatoes will supply practically all the essentials of a balanced food.

Record Shipbuilding

Cutting down the building time of a 10,500-ton ship from 244 to seven days was made at the Kaiser Richmond shipyard.

Newton High

On January 8th, at Boston University Deborah Hole represented Newton High School in the first session of the New England Junior Town Meeting of the Air. Deborah was chosen from a group of thirty Newton students who competed in primaries several weeks ago for the honor of speaking at the broadcast.

A Newton flier has written a book about life in the Army Air Corps. He is Lt. Leonard Le Sourd, class of '37. The book is called Sky-Bent and consists of letters from the time of his induction to his earning the coveted silver wings.

An introduction by Lowell Thomas stated, "It is a detailed, intimate story of an American boy's thoughts, actions, and feelings while he works for his wings."

Through the efforts of the "dance-minded-citizenry" of Newton High School, the Social Board has opened room 2200 weekly for informal dances.

The Drama Club of Newton High School presents a play every February. This year the club has chosen "Berkeley Square." The cast has been working hard to be ready for the performances on February 11 and 12.

Berkeley Square promises to be an outstanding production.

Day Jr. High

The bond and stamp sale on Thursday brought in $285.10 in cash and a grand total for the day of $324.20 including stamps which were turned in for the purchase of bonds.

The F. A. Day Junior High School has been awarded a Certificate by the United States Navy for the work done by some of the boys in preparing model airplanes for training centers. This work was done under the supervision of Mr. Gustavsen has always been superior in quality, according to Mr. Pohlman, the local director.

At the January meeting of the Newton Teachers' Council, Mr. Brent of the F. A. Day faculty was elected secretary.

The school enjoyed a talent program under the direction of Mr. Jurgielewicz. Katherine MacLure was the assembly chairman and announcer, who first led the school in the flag salute which was followed by the singing of the national anthem. James Henderson entertained with imitations of prominent people, Grace Swan gave a reading, Lucile Hedley played "Nocturne No. 2" by Chopin, Donald Rowlings, James Tuttle and Donald Cox played Paper Doll and Pistol Packin' Mama and selections were played by the school orchestra. Gibson Gardiner played "Semper Fidelis" by John Philip Sousa on the drum.

Warren Jr. High

At the Jr. II and Jr. III joint assembly on Friday, Jan. 14, Mr. Scarborough read two letters, one from the United States Navy Department commending the students of Warren, who, under the direction of Mr. Ralph Acker of the Industrial Arts Department, have completed their quota of 115 scale-model airplanes; the other from Secretary Morgenthau of the United States Treasury Department praising and thanking the student body of Warren for their outstanding achievement in buying War Stamps and Bonds to the amount of $6,145.40 for the purchase of a "flying jeep" grasshopper plane and a field ambulance.

Mr. Scarborough then presented the championship awards for 1943 Tag Football to the J. II and III homeroom winners, Eugene Hedley, Jr. II, Captain of the Eagles, received the award for rooms 113 and 114 and Albert Evans, Jr. III, accepted the honor to the Braves for rooms 207 and 115.

School Community President Ann Danforth turned the morning program over to Gudrun Robinson, a member of Jr. III, who presented to the students her father, Dr. Hugh L. Robinson, recently returned on the Gripsholm from Manila after twenty-one months' internment at Santo Tomas camp in the Philippines. Dr. Robinson, who was on his way home to America, from Tungchow after serving as medical missionary for 16 years in China when he was interned, gave a graphic description of his life among the 4,000 nationals who were imprisoned in the School of Mines at the Roman Catholic University.

Dr. Robinson's address should spur each and every student to even greater zeal in every phase of the war effort, though Warren has an enviable record to date.

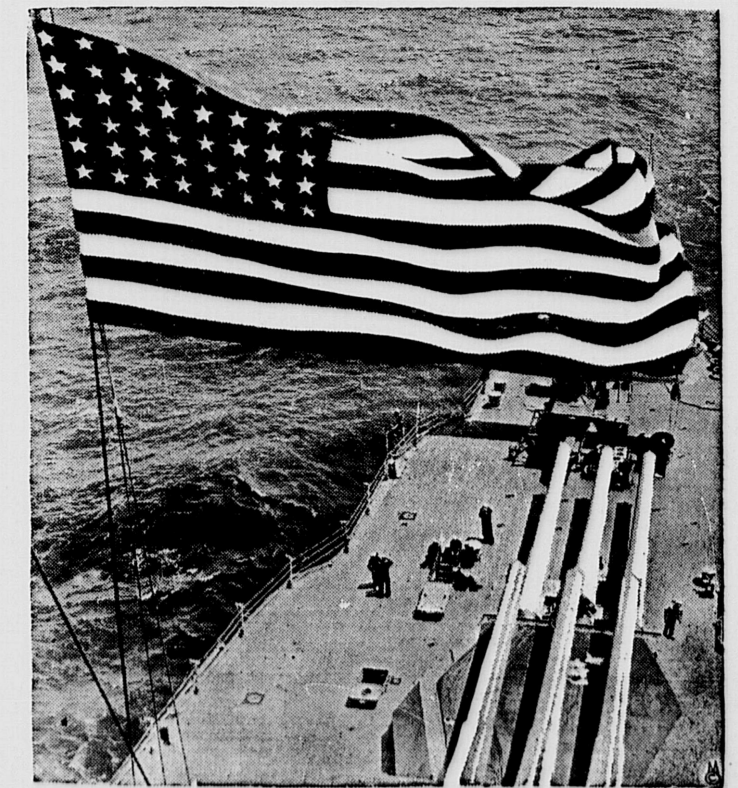

Feb. 15, 16 and 17 are the dates set for the second drive for waste paper. Meanwhile pennies, dimes and dollars are being accumulated for the Fourth War Loan.

Dental examination inspection of every Jr. III student has been completed this week.

This week Dr. Eastman has begun the detailed physical examinations given to each ninth grade student and all new entering students in the Newton system. Parents are permitted to come when their children are having these examinations to give or receive information of value to all concerned.

At the Jr. I and Jr. II Assembly on Friday, Jan. 21, previous to the showing of moving pictures, Mr. Scarborough presented to Rm. 102, through its chairman, Dick Lane, the new plaque awarded for Jr. I soccer championship.
